February 7, 2016

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8; I Cor 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]; Lk 5:1-11

Psalm 138

Dear Families:

Although it has already passed, it is good to remember the date of February 2nd: The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas, the Feast of the Purification of the Virgin, or Our Lady of Candelaria. It is one of the oldest feasts of the Catholic Church (IV century). It is the day that the Virgin Mary and St. Joseph present their son, Jesus, to God. Old Simeon is filled with joy because God visited his people, bringing the salvation to him, in his old age. Through him, we contemplate the fact that God himself, the living and true God, is radically committed to humanity ("God-with-us"). Simeon prophesizes about the child, showing the mystery of his passion, death and resurrection.

It is also called the Feast of the Purification of Our Lady because according to Jewish custom, women had to wait 40 days after giving birth to return to the temple. On that occasion, she must fulfill the offering prescribed by law. The Virgin Mary was, naturally, a part of the religious society of her time.

This Sunday: The Church invites us to trust, always. We have all gone through situations similar to those endured by the disciples of Jesus. We struggle and strive, only to see little results. Many times we give up. What is surprising about this Gospel story is that the disciples, despite having fished all night and caught nothing, simply trusted in Jesus. They cast their fishing nets again, "in his name". Another detail worthy of contemplation is that they are together, in community, not each one for himself.

Sometimes we feel alone, isolated, without friends, or support. We plan projects and have dreams that we work so hard to fulfill; we have expectations for our children that never materialize. There are many circumstances that push us to feel defeated. The message of the Gospel invites us to put aside "the night without fish"; to let go of what seems to be past failures; to forget about our disappointed expectations (often built upon our own delusions). Instead, we should concentrate on the present reality, and look to the future with trust, hope, and joy. Let Christ into your life with His Word and Sacraments of life. Let Him be your daily draught of light. Let Him into your heart, every day and night, to shape your thoughts and dreams, giving true and real meaning to your projects. "Cast the nets again"; trust Him; and be guided by Him.

May God bless you.

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

7 de Febrero del 2016

Isaías 6:1-2a, 3-8; 1 Cor 15:1-11; Lucas 5:1-11

Salmo 138 [137]

Queridas Familias:

Aunque ya ha pasado, es bueno recordar la fecha del dos de febrero: La fiesta de la Presentación del Señor. También se llama a este día la fiesta de la Purificación, o Virgen de la Candelaria. Es una de las fiestas más antigua de la Iglesia Católica (Siglo IV). Es el día en que la Virgen María y San José presentan ante Dios a su hijo Jesús. El viejo Simeón se llena de alegría, porque Dios visitó a su pueblo, trayendo la salvación que él, ya en edad avanzada, puede contemplar. El propio Dios, Dios vivo y verdadero, Dios-con-nosotros, se compromete radicalmente con la humanidad. Simeón profetiza sobre el niño, mostrando el misterio de su pasión, muerte y resurrección.

Se llama también la fiesta de la Purificación de Nuestra Señora porque según la costumbre judía, solamente 40 días después del parto la mujer podía frecuentar de nuevo el templo. En esa ocasión debía cumplir la ofrenda prescrita por la ley. La Virgen María estaba perfectamente insertada en la sociedad religiosa de su tiempo.

En éste domingo La Iglesia nos invita a confiar siempre. A todos nos ha ocurrido alguna vez lo mismo que a los discípulos de Jesús. Luchamos, nos esforzamos y al final vemos pocos resultados. Muchas veces nos damos por vencidos. Lo sorprendente del relato de este evangelio es que los discípulos a pesar de haber pasado toda la noche sin pescar nada, simplemente se fían – confían – de Jesús y “en su nombre” echan las redes de pescar de nuevo. Otro detalle para la reflexión es que están juntos, en comunidad, no está cada uno por su lado.

A veces nos sentimos solos, aislados, sin amigos, sin apoyo. Nos planteamos proyectos, con ilusión trabajamos por conseguir algo, esperamos de los hijos algo que después no llega...son muchas las circunstancias que nos empujan a sentirnos derrotados. El mensaje de este evangelio nos invita a dejar a un lado "la noche sin pescar", a dejar a un lado lo que nos parecen fracasos, a olvidar aquello que eran simplemente ilusiones y concentrarnos en el presente y mirar hacia el futuro. Deja a Cristo que entre en tu vida con su palabra y con sus sacramentos de vida. El es tu luz de cada día para moldear tus pensamientos, tus ilusiones, y dar forma real y verdadera a tus proyectos. "Echa las redes de nuevo", confía en El y déjate guiar por El.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflections of Pope Francis

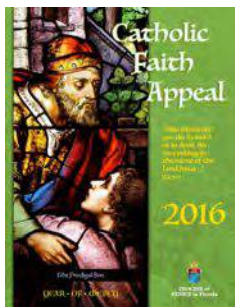

"Although the life of a person is in a land full of thorns and weeds, there is always a space in which the good seed can grow. You have to trust God."

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"A pesar de que la vida de una persona está en una tierra llena de espinas y malezas, siempre hay un espacio en el que la buena semilla puede crecer. Tiene que confiar en Dios."

IMPORTANT GRANT RECEIVED

Fr. Celestino gratefully acknowledges receipt of a $5,000 grant from the Kathleen K. Catlin Foundation, administered by the Community Foundation of Sarasota County, Inc. These funds will be used to supplement donations to the Christmas Program for the Needy. There were over 600 applications in December; thus, this gift is much needed to cover the costs of the food and toy distribution.

Linda, who had an abortion, writes, "My breaking point with my former church was when I was feeling truly guilty because of what I had done, I knew it was wrong, but people were trying to justify it to me. I didn't need justification, I needed to know how to reconcile an already fragmented relationship with the Lord... but I was too weighed down and no one seemed to see the need of forgiveness and reconciliation, at least until I came into contact with the Catholic Church. The funny thing is, so many people seem to see the Church as uncompassionate and uncaring; it was where I found love, acceptance and forgiveness."

Linda, quien tuvo un aborto, escribe: "Mi punto crítico con mi antigua Iglesia fue cuando me sentía realmente culpable a causa de lo que había hecho; sabía que estaba mal, pero la gente estaba tratando de justificarlo ante mí. No necesitaba justificación, lo que necesitaba saber era cómo conciliar una relación ya fragmentada con el Señor... pero yo estaba demasiado agobiada y nadie parecía ver la necesidad del perdón y la reconciliación, al menos hasta que entré en contacto con la Iglesia Católica. Lo gracioso es que, muchas personas parecen ver a la Iglesia como sin compasión e indiferente; fue allí donde encontré el amor, la aceptación y el perdón".

Death Penalty Presentation - Death Row Chaplain Dale Recinella will speak at St. Thomas More Parish, 2506 Gulf Gate Drive, Sarasota, on Saturday, February 13, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Hear this dynamic expert share the truth about the death penalty from his perspective as the Spiritual Director for many men as they prepare for execution. Dale is the author of Now I Walk on Death Row and The Biblical Truth about America's Death Penalty. For details, contact Jeanne Berdeaux at Berdeaux@dioceseofvenice.org or 941-374-1068.

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY – QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Why did Pope Francis call the Jubilee Year of Mercy?

"We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity, and peace. Our salvation depends on it...At times we are called to gaze even more attentively on mercy so that we may become a more effective sign of the Father's action in our lives. For this reason I have proclaimed an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy as a special time for the Church, a time when the witness of believers might grow stronger and more effective." – Pope Francis - (Misericordiae Vultus, 2-3)

During this TENTH ANNIVERSARY of St Jude Church the many volunteers in our Parish will be recognized for their contributions of time, talent and energy. Each week the Bulletin will list names of the women and men, boys and girls who dedicate hours to our programs and activities, both spiritual and service. Parish groups are asked to submit names of their volunteers. To insure that ALL are acknowledged, you may submit your name as one of the Volunteer Angels to the office.

Durante este DÉCIMO ANIVERSARIO de la Iglesia de San Judas, se le dará reconocimiento a los muchos voluntarios en nuestra Parroquia por sus contribuciones de tiempo, talento y energía. Cada semana el Boletín nombrará a las mujeres, hombres y jóvenes que dedican horas a nuestros programas y actividades, tanto espiritual como servicio. Se les pide a los grupos parroquiales que sometan los nombres de sus voluntarios. Para asegurar que todos sean reconocidos, puede proporcionar su nombre a la oficina como uno de los Ángeles de voluntarios.

Thank You to these St. Jude Volunteers
