Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 6, 2016

Joshua 5:9a, 10-12; 2 Cor 5:17-21; Luke 15:1-3, 11-32
Psalm 34

Dear Families:

Half of the Lenten season has passed and we are approaching Holy Week and the great feast of Christ's Passover (Easter). This Sunday highlights an essential aspect of Lent: Our conversion. To illustrate this, we use the Gospel reading of the prodigal son, who left his father's house with his share of the inheritance and squandered it all in vices and living a wayward life. When he had spent everything, he found himself without friends, and in dire need. He was left to tend the swine. His soul was full of sadness and sorrow for what he had done; yearning for the good life he lived in the house of his father. He decided to return; apologized; and stated his willingness to work as one of his father's hired hands.

The father had waited for his son every day, near the road where he had departed. When he caught sight of his son, he embraced him, greeting him with hugs and kisses. He forgave him and celebrated with a feast, a banquet, joyously announcing that his son "...was dead, and has come to life again...".

For the father it was important to have the family reunited, and he made this known to his eldest son, telling him: "Your brother was lost and has been found".

Lent is a special opportunity for God's grace and for conversion. Let us not let it pass by, nor let the time away from the house of God be too long, for He is expecting us to return, so he can forgive us. We should not be fearful of God to run away from Him, but rather we should approach Him with "holy fear", reverence and filial respect. He is the Father who loves us. He is good, and continues to wait for us, each day by the road, ready to embrace and forgive us - to lead us to the banquet feast, with Jesus.

God forgives me. Am I not able to forgive those who have offended me? Here we have a path laid out for us: to forgive and to love even those who have wronged us. God has been generous to us in His forgiving, just as we should be generous in our forgiveness of others.

May God bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma

6 de Marzo del 2016

Josué 5:9a, 10-12; 2 Cor 5:17-21; Lucas 15:1-3, 11-32
Salmo 34[33]

Queridas Familias:

Hemos pasado la mitad del tiempo de Cuaresma y nos vamos acercando a la Semana Santa y a la gran celebración de la Pascua de Cristo. Este domingo nos insiste en algo esencial de la Cuaresma: Nuestra conversión. Para ello utilizamos la lectura del evangelio del hijo pródigo, aquel que abandonó la casa de su padre con la herencia que le correspondía y malgastó todo en vicios y en mala vida. Cuando hubo acabado con todo se quedó sin amigos, expuesto al hambre y necesidad y cuidando cerdos; él que había sido rico. En su alma hay tristeza, añoranza de lo bien que vivía en la casa de su padre y dolor por lo que había hecho. Su alma no ha perdido el recuerdo de su padre y decide volver a pedirle perdón y trabajo como uno más entre los jornaleros.

El padre le esperaba cada día por el camino por donde se había ido, y así le encuentra, le abraza, le llena de besos, le perdona y da una fiesta; un banquete lleno de invitados porque ha recuperado a su hijo que "estaba muerto y ha vuelto a la vida".

Para el padre lo importante es tener a la familia unida, así se lo hace saber a su hijo mayor, "este hermano tuyo estaba perdido y ha sido encontrado".

La Cuaresma es la oportunidad especial de gracia de Dios y de conversión. No la dejemos pasar de largo. Que el tiempo no se haga largo lejos de la casa de Dios y regresemos al encuentro de Dios que nos espera para perdonarnos. No debemos tener miedo de Dios para huir de El; pero sí santo temor para acercarnos a El con reverencia y respeto filial. El es nuestro Padre; El nos ama. El es Bueno y sigue saliendo a pasear cada día para ver si regresamos a El y abrazarnos, perdonarnos y darnos el banquete de la fiesta con Jesús.

Dios me perdona, pero ¿soy yo capaz de perdonar a los que me han ofendido? Aquí tengo un camino que recorrer: saber perdonar y amar incluso a los que me han hecho mal. Dios ha sido generoso con nosotros, perdonándonos; igualmente debemos ser generosos en el perdón hacia los demás.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflections of Pope Francis

"Lent is a privileged time in which to prepare our hearts to receive God's forgiveness and to forgive our neighbors in turn, forgetting the faults of others."

"May Lent prepare our hearts to receive God's forgiveness – but let us receive it and then do the same with others: forgive heartily. Let us have mercy on others, and we shall feel that mercy of God, who, when He forgives, [also] 'forgets.'"

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"La Cuaresma es un tiempo privilegiado para preparar nuestros corazones para recibir el perdón de Dios y perdonar a nuestros vecinos, a su vez, olvidando los defectos de los demás."

"Que la Cuaresma prepare nuestros corazones para recibir el perdón de Dios - pero Recibámoslo y luego hagamos lo mismo con los demás: perdonando de todo corazón. Tengamos piedad de los demás, y sentiremos la misericordia de Dios, que, cuando perdona, [también] 'olvida'."

When attending Mass, please be mindful...the priest should be the last person to enter the Church... and the first one to leave.

Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

March 6

The traditional practice of "giving something up" for Lent is self-denial, to say No to ourselves and Yes to God and others. This reverses the pattern of sin, which says Yes to ourselves and No to God and others.

In our culture, the most violent No to God and others is abortion. More than 3,200 times every day in our nation, people say No to a little child so that they may say Yes to their fears or their plans.

This Lent, as we practice self-denial, let's think of these children. Let's offer our sacrifices for them, and reach out to them in love. May all say Yes to God and Yes to the unborn.

6 de Marzo

La práctica tradicional de "renunciar a algo" para la Cuaresma es la abnegación, el decir No a nosotros mismos y Sí a Dios y otros. Esto invierte el patrón del pecado, el cual dice que Sí a nosotros mismos y No a Dios y a los demás.

En nuestra cultura, el No más violento a Dios y a los demás es el aborto. En nuestro país, más de 3,200 veces cada día, la gente dice No a un niño pequeño para poder decir Sí a sus temores o sus planes.

En esta Cuaresma, al practicar la abnegación, pensemos en estos niños. Vamos a ofrecer nuestros sacrificios por ellos, y llegar a ellos en el amor. Que todos puedan decir Sí a Dios y Sí a los no nacidos.
