Third Sunday of Easter

April 10, 2016

Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41; Rev 5:11-14; John 21:1-19 [1-14]
Psalm 30

Dear Families:

As a celebration of the resurrection of Jesus, Easter brings us a sense of euphoria and well-being. However, we must remember that Christianity is essentially a balance. This Sunday will remind us that being a Christian has its moments of joy, but also times of sadness and pain.

The first reading refers to the persecution of the apostles in the early church. After Jewish authorities had them flogged, ordering them to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, the apostles left the Sanhedrin, "...rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name..." (Acts 5:40-41)..

In today's Gospel, Jesus reveals himself to Peter, at the Sea of Tiberias, and then tells him of his impending violent demise: "When you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this to signify the means by which Peter would die, and thereby glorify God. (Jn 21:18-19).

The catechetical instruction for this Third Sunday of Easter is that the future glory that awaits us, for being incorporated with the risen Christ, does not exempt us - rather requires us - to struggle and suffer, here on earth. To partake in the resurrection and glorification of Christ, we first have to partake in his crucifixion. As St. Paul teaches us: "All who want to live religiously in Christ Jesus will be persecuted" (2 Tim 3:12).

Sometimes, because the world disagrees with us, and other times because we have to disagree with the world, the world takes advantage of the failures of Church members to shake and discredit her, thus, causing much grief to men and women of good will who love the Church and, who by loving the Church, love Christ. Often, we must speak up as firmly as the apostles did before the Sanhedrin: "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29).

Do not be afraid. "He has made his dwelling among us..." (John 1:14), and with us: "I am with you always, until the end of the ages" (Mt 28:20). He is always present in his Church and in each and every one of us, when we receive him sacramentally in the Eucharist (Communion). Let us say it with faith as did the disciples of Emmaus: "... stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over...So he went in to stay with them..." (Luke 24:1-35)

May Jesus dwell in your hearts and in your families.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Tercer Domingo de Pascua

10 de Abril del 2016

Hechos 5:27-32, 40b-41; Apo 5:11-14; Juan 21:1-19 [1-14]
Salmo 30 [29]

Queridas Familias:

Resurrección de Jesús la Pascua (Easter), nos trae una sensación de euforia y bienestar; pero hemos de recordar que el cristianismo es esencialmente un equilibrio. Este domingo nos va a recordar que ser cristiano tiene sus momentos de alegría y también los momentos de tristeza y dolor.

La primera lectura se refiere a la persecución de los apóstoles en el comienzo de la Iglesia, cuando las autoridades judías los azotaron aunque ellos salían del Tribunal "contentos de haber merecido aquel ultraje por el nombre de Jesús" (Hechos 5:40ss).

Y en el evangelio de hoy, tras la entrega del Primado a Pedro en la aparición junto al mar de Tiberíades, Jesús le anuncia su futura muerte violenta. "Cuando eras joven te ceñías e ibas donde querías; pero, cuando seas viejo, extenderás las manos, otro te ceñirá y te llevará a donde no quieras. Esto dijo aludiendo a la muerte con que había de dar gloria a Dios" (Jn 21:18s).

La enseñanza catequética de este tercer domingo de Pascua es que la gloria futura que nos espera por estar incorporados a Cristo resucitado no nos exime - antes bien nos exige - luchar y padecer aquí en la tierra. Para llegar a ser como él Cristo resucitado y glorioso, hay que ser antes como él Cristo crucificado y paciente. Como enseña San Pablo: "Todos los que quieran vivir piadosamente en Cristo Jesús sufrirán persecuciones" (2Tim 3:12).

Unas veces, porque el mundo nos llevará a la contraria; otras, porque tendremos que llevársela nosotros al mundo. ¡Cómo se aprovecha el mundo de los fallos de miembros de la Iglesia para zarandearla y así, causar dolor a los hombres y mujeres de buena voluntad que aman a la Iglesia, pues amándola, aman a Cristo! A menudo tendremos que decir con firmeza como los apóstoles ante el Sanedrín (el Consejo de autoridad de los judíos): "Hay que obedecer a Dios antes que a los hombres" (Hechos 5:29).

No tengamos miedo, "El ha fijado su tienda entre nosotros" (Jn 1:14), y con nosotros "estará todos los días hasta el fin del mundo" (Mt 28:20). Está siempre presente en su Iglesia y en cada uno de nosotros de forma sacramental cuando lo recibimos en la Eucaristía (Comunión). Digamos con fe como los discípulos de Emaus (Lc 24:1-35) "...quédate con nosotros porque atardece y el día ya ha declinado. Y entró a quedarse con ellos".

Que Jesús esté en sus corazones y en sus familias.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

When attending Mass, please be mindful...the priest should be the last person to enter the Church... and the first one to leave.

Quando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

Reflections of Pope Francis

"To live Easter means to enter into the mystery of Jesus who died and rose for us."

"The Lord asks us to be men and women who radiate the truth, beauty and the life-changing power of the Gospel."

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"Vivir la Pascua significa entrar en el misterio de Jesús muerto y resucitado por nosotros."

"El Señor nos pide ser hombres y mujeres que irradian la verdad, la belleza y el poder transformador del Evangelio."

Remember Our Faithful Departed

Into your hands, O Lord, we commend the souls of our recently departed. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amén

Recuerden a Nuestros Difuntos

En tus manos, encomendamos a los que han fallecido recientemente. Que sus almas y las almas de los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descansen en paz.

Amén

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Sunday, April 17 is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The purpose being to answer the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2).

While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates Her attention this day on the vocations of priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Please pray that young men and women would hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to serve.

April 10

The theme of obedience to the Risen Christ contrasts powerfully with the attitude of our culture that freedom consists in insisting on our own choices, and protecting near-absolute personal autonomy. That is not the way of salvation or even of earthly happiness. Instead, the only way to both is a resounding "Yes" to life, in obedience to the one who conquers death and gives life abundantly.

10 de Abril

El tema de la obediencia a Cristo resucitado contrasta fuertemente con la actitud de nuestra cultura que la libertad consiste en insistir en nuestras propias decisiones, y la protección de la autonomía personal casi absoluta. Ese no es el camino de la salvación, o incluso de la felicidad terrenal. En cambio, la única forma de lograr ambos es mediante un rotundo "Sí" a la vida, en obediencia al que vence a la muerte y da vida en abundancia.

In conjunction with rallies being held nationally, the next Protest Planned Parenthood vigil will be held in front of Planned Parenthood in Sarasota from 9 – 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 23, with speakers at 10.

Planned Parenthood is the leading abortion provider nationally (over 300,000 a year), and though some states have succeeded in defunding the organization, most of the half a billion dollars it receives annually from the federal government is still flowing.

Planned Parenthood is downtown on Central Avenue at 8th Street, 5 blocks north of Fruitville and 2 blocks west of Orange.

You may bring your own signs, but with these as with everything we ask everyone to be peaceful and prayerful.

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

Spiritual Works of Mercy indulgence

During the Jubilee Year of Mercy Pope Francis has announced that the opportunity for a plenary indulgence will be made available for those who do Spiritual Works of Mercy. Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy are actions we can perform that extend God's compassion and mercy to those in need.

The Spiritual Works of Mercy are acts of compassion, as listed below, by which we help our neighbors with their emotional and spiritual needs.

- To instruct the ignorant;
- To counsel the doubtful;
- To admonish sinners;
- To bear wrongs patiently;
- To forgive offences willingly;
- To comfort the afflicted;
- To pray for the living and the dead

To obtain the Jubilee Indulgence, the following conditions must also be met. It is ideal to meet these conditions on the day of the indulgenced act. They can also be met within a week before or after the act:

- Receive the Holy Eucharist,
- Go to Sacramental Confession,
- Pray for the Holy Father's intentions,
- Have the intention to be completely detached from sin.

A plenary indulgence during the Jubilee Year can be received multiple times, but a maximum of once a day.

For the homebound, incarcerated and similar situations

Giving the greatest amount of consideration to those who may be unable to go through a Holy Door, Pope Francis allows the granting of the indulgences. Such individuals are encouraged to fulfill the other requirements to the best of their ability.

Assigning indulgence to deceased person

In the context of the Jubilee Year, the Holy Father went even further by stating the indulgence could also be assigned by the recipient to a deceased person.
