Psalm 90

Dear Families:

Today's gospel invites us to follow Jesus faithfully, no matter what. In following the gospel of Jesus, family, social or political conflicts may arise. It may be that by following Jesus one can lose friends, political allies, and even a job. If we want to be faithful to Jesus, there is no other alternative but to accept everything we bear for his name, as a sliver of the cross that Christ bore for the salvation of the world. There is no room for doubt or ambiguity, if we are to truly follow Him.

Jesus did not come to teach us theories about man in his relationship with God, or philosophies engendered in reason. He came to bestow everlasting life, upon all who would follow Him. He is the Way, the Truth and the Life, for each and every one of us. He speaks to us through the gospel and the sacraments. He accepts us as children of God, through baptism. He opens the door to reconciliation with the Father, through Confession. He nourishes and incorporates us, through communion. At Confirmation, we receive the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us, strengthens us and enables us to live the mystery of bodily unification with Christ (we are the Mystical body of Christ). In the Anointing of the Sick, he comforts us in sickness; relieves our pain; strengthens our soul with forgiveness and peace. In Holy Orders, he gives us priests to offer, to God the Father, the sacrifice of Jesus, who reconciles and unites us to Him, through the Holy Mass. Through priestly ministry, He administers other sacraments and graces, such as matrimony, where God consecrates the couple's love and blesses them as a new family and a new branch of the great family of the children of God, which is the Church of Christ. These are the truths of our Catholic faith, in our life as children of God.

September 8th is the day when Catholic Cubans celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Charity. It originated in the mines of Santiago del Prado, Cuba (modern El Cobre) around the year 1600. One of three boys, Juan Moreno, saw a small statue of our Lady holding the infant Jesus in her left arm and a gold cross in her right floating in the sea on a piece of wood that read, "I am our Lady of Charity". Her final sanctuary was declared basilica in 1978 by Pope Paul VI. The Cuban people have great love for the Virgin Mary, who has accompanied them along their difficult history. Our Lady of Charity was proclaimed the patroness of Cuba by Pope Benedict XV in 1916 and she was solemnly crowned in 1936.

Let us join in the prayers of the good Cubans for the salvation of their beloved island. We beseech thee, Our Lady and Mother of Charity to intercede, before your Son, for the sons and daughters of Cuba, wherever they may be. May God grant that freedom and dignity, trampled over many years, be restored to this people. May their hopes become reality, soon. Long live a free Cuba! Long live our Lady of Charity!

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

4 de Septiembre del 2016

Sab 9:13-18b; Filemó 9-10, 12-17; Lucas 14:25-33

Salmo 90 [89]

Queridas Familias:

El evangelio que corresponde a este domingo nos invita a seguir a Jesús fielmente, cueste lo que cueste. Puede incluso que se planteen conflictos familiares, sociales o políticos por seguir el evangelio de Jesús. Puede suceder que por seguir a Jesús sea uno rechazado socialmente, políticamente e incluso expulsado de su trabajo. Si uno quiere ser fiel a Jesús no tiene otra alternativa que aceptar todo como una cruz que acompaña a la cruz de Cristo por la salvación del mundo. No puede haber dudas, ni ambigüedades en el seguimiento de Jesús.

Jesús no ha venido para darnos teorías acerca del ser humano en su relación con Dios, o filosofías engendradas en la razón. Nos ha venido a dar la Vida, él es el camino, la verdad y la vida para cada uno de nosotros. Nos habla y nos alimenta con los sacramentos. Por el Bautismo nos da la vida de hijos de Dios; en la confesión nos reconciamos con el Padre; en la Comunión le recibimos a él mismo; en la Confirmación recibimos el Espíritu Santo que nos santifica, nos fortalece y nos hace vivir el misterio de que los cristianos formamos con él un solo cuerpo (somos el cuerpo Místico de Cristo); en la Unción de los enfermos nos conforta en la enfermedad, alivia nuestros dolores, fortalece nuestra alma con el perdón y la paz; en el Orden Sacerdotal nos da sacerdotes para que ofrezcan a Dios Padre el sacrificio de Jesús que nos reconcilia y nos une a él (la Santa Misa), y los demás sacramentos y gracias que a través del ministerio sacerdotal llegan a nosotros; en el Matrimonio, Dios consagra el amor de los esposos y los bendice como una nueva familia que enriquece y forma parte de la gran familia de los hijos de Dios que es la Iglesia de Cristo. Estas son las verdades de nuestra fe católica, de nuestra vida de hijos de Dios.

El 8 de septiembre es el día en que los cubanos católicos celebran la festividad de la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre. Tuvo su origen en las minas de Santiago alrededor del año 1600. Uno de los tres Juanes, Juan Moreno, la vio flotando en el mar en una tablilla que decía, yo soy la Virgen de la Caridad. Su santuario definitivo fue declarado basilica en 1978 por el Papa Pablo VI. El pueblo cubano tiene gran amor a la Virgen que lo ha acompañado a lo largo de su difícil historia. La Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre fue declarada la Patrona de Cuba por el Papa Benedicto XV en 1916, y coronada solemnemente en 1936.

Nos unimos a las oraciones de los buenos cubanos por la salvación de la Isla. Madre de la Caridad, intercede ante tu Hijo por los hijos e hijas de Cuba allá donde estén. Concede a este pueblo la libertad y la dignidad atropellada a lo largo de tantos años. Que sus esperanzas se hagan pronto realidad. Viva Cuba libre, Viva la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre.

Que Dios los bendiga,

P. Celestino, Párroco

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!
