Fifth Sunday of Lent

April 2nd, 2017

Ez 37:12-14; Rom 8:8-11; John 11:1-45 [3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45] Psalm 130

Dear Families:

In today's Gospel, we read about the resurrection of Lazarus. Siblings Martha, Mary and Lazarus were friends of Jesus, who lived in Bethany. It seems that Jesus often stopped there to rest, in his travels, especially enroute to Jerusalem, as Bethany is very close to Jerusalem. Jesus was informed that Lazarus was ill, but did not arrive before his death. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." Jesus said to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the Life". Martha responded in faith, saying, "Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that you are the Christ; the Son of God; the one who is coming into the world". We all know what happened next: Jesus raised his friend Lazarus from the dead.

This event reveals the glory of God, his supreme manifestation: to give life to those living in death. Today's reading also prepares us for Holy Week, summarized in two words: death and resurrection. Lazarus is the anticipated figure or symbol of what is to happen to Jesus, himself.

Along with this fact - Lazarus' physical death, we must understand, in this Gospel, the allusion to other deaths of the spirit: fear and cowardice, resignation and abandonment, weeping and hopelessness. This gospel tries to give answer to all these spiritual situations. Jesus' presence shows love for his friend; that's why he cries, but it is a cry of hope: "He who believes in me will never die. Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that You always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." Jesus appears to be saying to the Apostles, and to all those gathered, how incredible it is that after being with Him and witnessing all of his miracles, they are still doubtful and without faith. Jesus seems to say that it is easier to pull Lazarus out of the tomb than those who are dead in spirit. Jesus performs the miracle to show the glory of God and to prepare them for what was to come: His own death on the cross and His resurrection. How difficult it was for Jesus to get his disciples to believe in Him! And how difficult it is for us to believe in Him!

The season of Lent is a time to renew, with full awareness and strength, our faith in Christ - even though at times things may appear dark. No more fears. We must fight for life, for our families and for a society with God.

May God bless you.

FATHER CELESTINO, PASTOR

Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma

2 de Abril del 2017

Ez 37:12-14; Rom 8:8-11; Juan 11:1-45 [3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45] Salmo 130 [129]

Queridas Familias:

Leemos hoy el evangelio de la resurrección de Lázaro. En Betania vivían aquellos tres hermanos amigos de Jesús: Marta, María y Lázaro. Parece que Jesús se retiraba allí a descansar con alguna frecuencia, especialmente cuando iba a Jerusalén. Betania está muy cerca de Jerusalén. Uno de esos hermanos ha muerto. Se trata de Lázaro. Jesús no estaba allí, habíase avisado de la enfermedad pero no habíase llegado antes de morir Lázaro. Por eso Marta le reclama de esta manera: "Si hubieras estado aquí, no habrías muerto mi hermano". Jesús, en el diálogo con Marta, le hace ver que El es la resurrección y la vida. Marta responde con fe diciendo: "Sí, Señor, yo creo que tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, el que tenía que venir al mundo". Después sabemos lo que pasó: Jesús resucitó a su amigo Lázaro.

Este hecho revela la gloria de Dios, su manifestación suprema: dar la vida a los que viven en la muerte. También esta lectura de hoy nos predispone para la Semana Santa, sintetizada en dos palabras: muerte y resurrección. Lázaro es la figura o el símbolo anticipado del mismo Jesús.

Junto a este hecho de la muerte física de Lázaro hemos de saber leer en este evangelio la alusión a esas otras muertes del espíritu: el miedo y la cobardía, la resignación y el abandono, el llanto y la desesperanza. A todas estas situaciones del espíritu trata de dar respuesta este evangelio. La presencia de Jesús muestra el amor al amigo, por eso llora, pero es un llanto de esperanza: "El que cree en mí no morirá jamás. Padre, te doy gracias porque me has escuchado, yo sé que tú me escuchas siempre, pero ahora hablo para que la gente que me rodea crea que tú me enviaste". Jesús parece estar diciendo a los apóstoles y a aquellos allí reunidos que parece mentira que después de haber andado con El y haber visto los milagros que ha hecho todavía duden y están sin fe. Jesús parece decir que es más fácil sacar de la tumba a Lázaro que a ellos mismos que parecen muertos en el espíritu. Jesús hace el milagro para mostrar la gloria de Dios y para prepararlos a lo que se avecinaba: su propia muerte en la cruz y su resurrección. "¿Cómo le costó Jesús que sus discípulos creyeran en Él! Y ¿cómo le cuesta que nosotros creamos en Él!

El tiempo de la Cuaresma es el momento de renovar con plena conciencia y con fuerza nuestra fe en Cristo a pesar de que todo nos parezca oscuro. No más miedos. Hay que luchar por la vida, por nuestras familias y por una sociedad con Dios.

Que Dios los bendiga.

P. CELESTINO, PARRCO
