Second Sunday of Easter Divine Mercy Sunday

April 23, 2017

Acts 2:42-47; 1 Peter 1:3-9; John 20:19-31
Psalm 118

Dear Families:

This Second Sunday of Easter is traditionally called, "Sunday in Albis" (white Sunday), because it is the day that the newly baptized on Holy Saturday officially laid down their white garments worn throughout the week after their baptism by immersion.

The Church takes advantage of this occasion to remind us of the foundation of our Christian being, even if we do not manifest it externally. We are men and women who, by our incorporation to the resurrected Christ, have been cleansed of our sins and raised to the level of children of God.

The white Garment, which is reminiscence of the white cloth the priest puts upon the head of the newly baptized in the actual ceremony, was in the early Church a sign of the new man (cleansed from sin and a child of God). The Romans in the early centuries of Christianity were reminded of the white toga that the firstborn of the noble families wore all day on the date set by the father for their coming of legal age. Until that day, says St. Paul, "as long as the heir is not of age, he is no different from a slave" but he is under the supervision of guardians and administrators until the date set by his father" (Gal 4:1-2). That day the firstborn no longer lived as a slave and would share the table with his parents. And the apostle also assured to the baptized: "So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God" (Gal 4:7).

Therefore, the newly baptized, with the same significance, but more so than the firstborn of Roman families, honored Holy Saturday and wore the white robe all week until the Sunday that they put them away; now you are children of God and heirs of God.

To all of this we come by faith. St. John tells us in the prologue of his Gospel that the Word "gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in His name" (John 1:12).

Segundo Domingo de Pascua Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

23 de Abril del 2017

Hechos 2:42-47; 1 Pedro 1:3-9; Juan 20:19-31
Salmo 118 [117]

Queridas Familias:

Este domingo de Pascua se llama tradicionalmente, "Domingo de Albis" (domingo de blanco), porque tal día como hoy los bautizados el Sábado de Gloria depusieron las vestiduras blancas con que se vistieron al salir del bautismo por inmersión y que habían llevado puestas toda la semana.

La Iglesia aprovechaba, y sigue aprovechando, esta ocasión para recordarles y recordarnos el constitutivo de nuestro ser cristiano, aún cuando no llevemos distintivo externo que lo manifieste. Somos hombres y mujeres que por nuestra incorporación a Cristo resucitado, hemos sido limpiados de nuestros pecados y elevados a la categoría de hijos de Dios.

La Vestidura blanca de la cual es un recuerdo histórico el paño blanco que el sacerdote pone sobre la cabeza del bautizado en la ceremonia actual, era en la Iglesia primitiva signo del hombre nuevo (limpio de pecado e hijo de Dios). A los romanos de los primeros siglos del cristianismo les recordaba la blanca toga que el primogénito de las familias nobles endosaba y llevaba puesta todo el día en la fecha señalada por el padre para la mayoría de edad. Hasta ese día, dice San Pablo, "el heredero en nada se diferencia de un esclavo" sino que está bajo tutores y administradores, hasta el tiempo prefijado por el Padre" (Gal 4:1-2). Ese día el primogénito dejaba de vivir con los esclavos y compartía la mesa de los padres. Y a los bautizados aseguraba el apóstol: "Ya no eres esclavo, sino hijo, y si eres hijo, eres también heredero" (Gal 4:7).

Por ello, los recién bautizados, con el mismo significado, pero con mayor motivo que los primogénitos de las familias romanas, endosaban el Sábado de Gloria y llevaban puesta toda la semana la vestidura blanca que este domingo depusieron: ya sois hijos de Dios y herederos de Dios.

A todo esto hemos llegado por la fe. Dice San Juan en el prólogo de su evangelio que el Verbo "dio poder de ser hijos de Dios a los que han creído en su nombre" (Jn 1:12).

It is understood that on this day, the third reading is the Gospel passage that proclaims the blessedness of faith. At dusk on Easter Sunday, Jesus appears to his apostles and shows them his hands with the mark of the nails and his side. Thomas was not with them and does not want to believe what they say without having seen and touched the hands and side of Jesus. Eight days later (on a day like today), Jesus appeared again and this time Thomas was with them. He was confused and when he felt and touched Jesus, he fell to his feet and confessed: "My Lord and my God." Jesus then said, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed!"

Then there we were, throughout time, who would believe in his resurrection, having not seen him rise, but by the simple testimony of those who saw him.

I know that when I believe, Jesus looks at me with love and calls me "blessed".

Blessed are those who read this message.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 3

Se comprende que en este día la tercera lectura sea el pasaje evangélico que proclama la bienaventuranza de la fe. Al anochecer el domingo de Pascua Jesús se aparece a sus apóstoles y les muestra las manos con el agujero de los clavos y el costado. Tomás no está con ellos y no quiere creer en lo que le dicen sin antes haber visto y tocado las manos y el costado de Jesús. Ocho días después (un día como hoy) Jesús se aparece de nuevo estando presente Tomás que, confundido al ver y tocar a Jesús, se echó a sus pies y confesó: "Señor mío y Dios mío". Jesús le dijo: "¿Por qué me has visto has creído?" Bienaventurados los que, sin ver, creen!

Allí estamos entonces todos los que, andando el tiempo, vamos a creer en su resurrección, sin haberle visto resucitado, sino por el simple testimonio de los que le vieron.

Yo sé que, cuando creo, Jesús me mira con amor y me llama como entonces: "bienaventurado".

Bienaventurados todos los que hoy leáis este mensaje.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflections of Pope Francis

Oh Cross of Christ, inspire in us a desire for God, for goodness and for light.

Being a believer means learning how to see with eyes of faith.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

El Padre Celestino, el Clero, el personal de San Judas y nuestra sacristana, Ana María Wissing, desean dar reconocimiento y agradecimiento especial por sus donaciones de flores de Pascua para el Altar a:

On April 22, 2001, which was one year after establishing Divine Mercy Sunday, Pope John Paul II re-emphasized its message in the resurrection context of Easter: Jesus said to St. Faustina one day: "Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy".

El 22 de abril de 2001, que fue un año después de establecer el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, El Papa Juan Pablo II volvió a hacer hincapié en su mensaje en el contexto de la resurrección de la Pascua: Jesús dijo a Santa Faustina un día: "La humanidad nunca encontrará la paz hasta que se convierta con confianza en la Divina Misericordia".

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

Thank you to all the volunteers at St Jude Church who in one way or another make a difference in our Parish every day. Our Parish is blessed to have so many people helping around all the time. Your time is really appreciated.
God Bless you all!!

April 23 - 29

Gracias a todos los voluntarios de nuestra Parroquia de San Judas, que de una forma u otra hacen una diferencia todos los dias. Nuestra Parroquia es bendecida por tener tanta gente ayudando en todo momento. Su tiempo es apreciado.
Que Dios los bendiga!

Save the Date - The annual Yom HaShoah Hour of Remembrance will be held at Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Ave. W., Venice, Sunday, April 30 at 2:30 p.m. Each year the Diocese of Venice in Florida hosts this commemoration of the Holocaust as an interreligious gathering bringing members of the Catholic and Jewish communities together in order to recommit to the promotion of peace and solidarity among all peoples. The guest speaker will be Rabbi Howard A. Simon. Now retired, Rabbi Simon has served for many years building interreligious dialogue in the region. All members of the Jewish Community are encouraged to attend, especially survivors of the Holocaust and their families, as well as members of the Catholic Community of the Diocese of Venice in Florida. A reception will follow in the Parish Hall.

Prayerful Defund Planned Parenthood Rally

On Saturday, April 29, protests to Defund Planned Parenthood will be held nationwide, including outside Planned Parenthood in Sarasota on Central Avenue at 8th Street from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. with speakers at 10:00 a.m. Planned Parenthood is the leading provider of abortion (over 320,000 per year) yet it does not offer a full range of diagnostic tests and offers virtually no prenatal care. The half billion taxpayer dollars to be defunded from Planned Parenthood should be redirected to the thousands of Federally Qualified Health Centers which offer a much wider range of important services. Prayer for Rain

During this time of drought in Southwest Florida, let us pray that we receive the blessing of much needed rain: Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. To think that so much water can fall out of the sky, which is now empty and clear! We place our trust in You. We are sure that you know our needs. But You want us to ask You anyway, to show You that we know we are dependent on You. Look on our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then the land will rejoice, and the rivers will sing Your praises, and the hearts of all will be made glad. Amen.

April 23

This is Divine Mercy Sunday, established by St. John Paul II as requested by Jesus in appearances to St. Faustina.

The pope issued an Apostolic Blessing to all who pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for mothers, that they not abort their offspring; for infants in danger of being put to death in the womb; for a change of heart of providers of abortions and of their collaborators; for human victims of stem cell research, genetic manipulation, cloning and euthanasia; and for all entrusted with the government of peoples, that they may promote the Culture of Life."

23 de Abril

Este es el domingo de la Divina Misericordia, establecido por San Juan Pablo II como lo pidió Jesús en apariciones a Santa Faustina. El Papa emitió una Bendición Apostólica a todos los que rezan la Divina Misericordia "por las madres, para que no aborten a su descendencia; para los niños que corren peligro de ser asesinados en el vientre materno; por un cambio de corazón de los proveedores de abortos y de sus colaboradores; por las víctimas humanas de la investigación con células madre, la manipulación genética, la clonación y la eutanasia; y por todos los encargados del gobierno de los pueblos, para que promuevan la Cultura de la Vida "

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon the Diocese of Venice will be taking up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA) Collection. This appeal supports the dioceses here in our own country that struggle to make ends meet and to serve the needs of their parishioners. It is through your generosity that many churches are able to keep their doors open and provide essential pastoral services.

Home Mission Dioceses often are challenged by priest shortages, parishioner poverty, unemployment, difficult and isolated terrain, religious hostility, and other circumstances that make it difficult to practice the faith. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal strengthens the Church in the United States by providing yearly grants to support programs in Home Mission Dioceses.

Your donations help provide liturgical and educational supplies, help provide priests to offer the Eucharist and other sacraments, and support volunteers' and ministers' outreach to over 10,000 men and women in detention facilities. It is precisely your generosity that brings Christ's message of love, compassion, and reconciliation to this often-forgotten population.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal Collection will take place in the Diocese of Venice the weekend of April 29 and 30, 2017. Please, be generous in the Collection. Your support makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

I take this opportunity to assure you and your family of my continued consideration as well as my prayers. Have a Blessed Easter Season!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
