The Ascension of the Lord

May 28, 2017

Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23; Matthew 28:16-20
Psalm 47

Dear Families:

Today is the feast of the Ascension of the Lord. Normally this feast is celebrated on the Thursday of the Sixth week of Easter, but for practical and pastoral reasons (to facilitate the participation of the faithful), this celebration is transferred to the following Sunday instead of Thursday as marked on the liturgical calendar.

Once His mission was accomplished, Jesus gave His farewell to His disciples and before their eyes ascended into Heaven. He is still present among His people, in His Church, in the sacraments and in the well announced message: "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age". This is the mandate of Jesus.

Soon after ascending into heaven, Jesus sends the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, making them His envoys for the salvation of the world. Jesus is sent by the Father and He returns to the Father after completing His mission. Now, Jesus' disciples are commissioned to continue the mission of Jesus - the salvation of the world. We all have this mission one way or another, according to our individual skills, charisma and qualities. We have all been "sent". The purpose of all (the Son of God, the Holy Spirit, the apostles, the prophets and all Christians) is to bring together all of humanity under God's justice and mercy. This is what defines the Church: we have been sent by Jesus to bring everyone together. Let us be the voice of Jesus to all who listen in good faith.

May God Bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

La Ascensión del Señor

28 de Mayo del 2017

Hechos 1:1-11; Efesios 1:17-23; Mateo 28:16-20
Salmo 47 [46]

Queridas Familias:

Hoy es la fiesta de la Ascensión del Señor. Normalmente esta festividad se celebra el jueves pero por razones prácticas y pastorales (para facilitar a todos la participación de esta celebración), se traslada al domingo siguiente en vez del jueves marcada en el calendario litúrgico.

Jesús, después de cumplida su misión se despidió de los suyos y a la vista de aquel grupo de discípulos ascendió al Cielo. Pero Él sigue presente entre los suyos, en su Iglesia, en las acciones sacramentales y en el mensaje bien anunciado: "Vayan y hagan que todos los pueblos sean mis discípulos. Bautízenlos, en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, y enseñenles a cumplir todo lo que yo les he encomendado. Yo estoy con ustedes todos los días hasta que se termine este mundo". Este es el mandato de Jesús.

Pocos días después de ascender a los cielos Jesús envió a el Espíritu Santo sobre los apóstoles, que se convierten de esta manera en sus enviados para la salvación del mundo. Jesús es el enviado del Padre que ha vuelto al Padre una vez cumplida su misión ahora los discípulos de Jesús reciben el encargo de continuar la misión de Jesús que es la salvación del mundo. Todos tenemos esta misión unos de una manera, otros de otra, de acuerdo a las capacidades, los carismas, las cualidades de cada uno. Todos somos enviados. La finalidad de todos (los profetas, el Hijo de Dios, el Espíritu Santo, los apóstoles, los cristianos) consiste en reunir a todo el pueblo bajo la justicia y la misericordia de Dios. Esto es lo que define a la Iglesia: somos enviados por Jesús para reunir a todos. Seamos la voz de Jesús para todos los que con buena voluntad quieren escuchar.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflections of Pope Francis

Our hope is the Lord Jesus whom we recognize as living and present in us and in our brothers and sisters.

Let us ask for the grace to follow Jesus faithfully, not in words but in deeds, and to have the patience to carry our own cross.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

Nuestra esperanza es el Señor Jesús que reconocemos vivo y presente en nosotros y en nuestros hermanos.

"Para seguir fielmente a Jesús, pedimos la gracia de hacerlo no de palabra sino con los hechos, y de llevar nuestra cruz con paciencia."

REVELATION: THE KINGDOM YET TO COME

Revelation is the first ongoing study in The Great Adventure Bible Study Program. In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass.

You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history.

Join us for Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come offered by Fr. Robert Tatman at St. Jude Catholic Church in Sarasota beginning Tuesday, May 23, 2017 at 10:00 AM and continuing every Tuesday until completion. For more information or to register for the study, call the parish office at (941) 955-3934. There is no cost and everyone is welcome.

Pentecost Sunday - The great feast that marks the birth of the Christian Church by the power of the Holy Spirit, Pentecost Sunday, is June 4. Pentecost means "fiftieth day" and is celebrated 50 days after Easter. Red is the liturgical color for this day and it is encouraged that the faithful wear red to Church that day. Red is symbolic of the love of the Holy Spirit and recalls the tongues of fire in which the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles that first Pentecost. The color red also reminds us of the blood of the martyrs. These are the believers of every generation who by the power of the Holy Spirit hold firm to the true faith even at the cost of their lives.

Domingo de Pentecostés - La gran fiesta que marca el nacimiento de la Iglesia Cristiana por el poder del Espíritu Santo, el Domingo de Pentecostés, es el 4 de junio. Pentecostés significa "quincuagésimo día" y se celebra 50 días después de Pascua. El rojo es el color litúrgico para este día y se anima a que los fieles se pongan rojo para la Iglesia ese día. El rojo es símbolo del amor del Espíritu Santo y recuerda las lenguas de fuego en las que el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre los apóstoles el primer Pentecostés. El color rojo también nos recuerda la sangre de los mártires. Estos son los creyentes de todas las generaciones que por el poder del Espíritu Santo se mantienen firmes a la verdadera fe incluso a costa de sus vidas.

National Catholic Pledge to End the Death Penalty - The faithful are invited to join Bishop Frank J. Dewane in signing a national pledge to end the use of the death penalty. As Chair of the USCCB Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development, the Bishop was one of the first signatories who have committed to advocate, educate and pray for the end to the use of the death penalty. The human nature with which Jesus ascends is the same human nature you and I share, and the same human nature that babies in the womb share. Celebrating the Ascension in daily life means treating each human life as one destined to sit with Christ on his throne.
