Dear Families:

This Sunday's Gospel highlights and juxtaposes God's part and man's part in the salvation of men, individually: salvation is an absolutely free gift from God and man's responsibility is meeting the conditions imposed by God.

St. Augustine was fond of puns and often captured deep theological content in sound bites. For example: "God, who created you without you, will not save you without you".

Obviously, in bringing us into existence, God did not count on our participation. However, when it comes to our salvation, to which we are destined, even though it is a free gift, it is subject to our free cooperation.

Properly speaking, we do not save ourselves. (We cannot save ourselves.) We can only be saved by God. But each of us is responsible for our own salvation, which is conditional to our own personal behavioral response to God's saving plan.

The initiative for our salvation is all from God, and we are not saved by our good works. Without those works, however, we cannot be saved, because God has required them as a condition for our salvation.

The covenant between God and men contains provisions that we must meet. The Gospel of St. John (today's third reading) talks about the new and definitive Covenant, stressing the dangers posed by men not meeting the conditions of this covenant: "...And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed." (John 3:19-20)

Reflections of Pope Francis

"In the roughest moments, remember: God is our Father; God does not abandon his children."

"Let us build our lives of faith on the rock who is Christ."

Queridas Familias:

La catequesis de este domingo subraya y juxtapone la parte de Dios y la parte del hombre en la salvación de cada uno: absoluta gratuidad por parte de Dios y responsabilidad del hombre en el cumplimiento de las condiciones impuestas por Dios.

San Agustín era muy aficionado a los juegos de palabras y con frecuencia plasmó en frases lapidarias profundos contenidos teológicos. Decía en una de ellas: "Dios, que te creó a ti sin ti, no te salvará a ti sin ti".

Obviamente, para traernos a la existencia, Dios no contó previamente con nosotros. En cambio, la salvación a la que nos destina, aún siendo, como es, don gratuito, está condicionada a nuestra libre cooperación.

Propiamente hablando, no nos salvamos (no nos podemos salvar) nosotros mismos. Nos salva él. Pero cada uno de nosotros es responsable de nuestra propia salvación, porque ésta depende condicionalmente de nuestro comportamiento personal ante el plan salvífico de Dios.

La iniciativa de nuestra salvación es toda de Dios. Y no nos salvan nuestras buenas obras; pero sin ellas no ser salvados, porque Dios nos las exige como condición para salvarnos.

La alianza de Dios con los hombres contiene cláusulas condicionantes que debemos cumplir. El evangelio de San Juan (tercera lectura de hoy) hablando de la nueva y definitiva Alianza, recalca la peligrosidad de no cumplir los hombres las condiciones del pacto: "Esta es la causa de la condenación: que la luz vino al mundo, pero los hombres prefirieron las tinieblas a la luz, porque sus obras eran malas. Pues todo el que obra perversamente aborrece la luz y no se acerca a la luz, para no verse acusado por las obras." (Juan 3:19-20)

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"En los momentos más difíciles, recuerda: Dios es nuestro Padre; Dios no abandona a sus hijos."

"Vamos a construir nuestra vida de fe sobre la roca que es Cristo."

In today's Gospel Jesus relates His death on the cross with the episode of snakes in the desert. There, the murmuring of the Israelites was punished with a plague of venomous snakes. When they repented, God commanded Moses to build a bronze snake and lift it on a pole, so that those bitten by snakes would be healed just by looking at the figure. Jesus tells us, "...And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life" (John 3:14); He is speaking of His cross.

Good Friday: The Cross of Christ...The Cross of salvation... is lifted upon the earth. Let us look to the Cross, where our Savior is, with repentance for our sins, and with love.

Thursday, March 19th, is the feast of St. Joseph, patron of priesthood vocations. Let us pray for vocations, that there will not be a lack of priests in our community, to celebrate the Eucharist, to comfort us in our sickness, to farewell the dying, to console us, to pray for us and together, we can pray to God.

May God bless you and grant you peace,

Fr. Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 4...

En el evangelio de hoy Jesús relaciona su muerte en la cruz con el episodio de las serpientes en el desierto. Allí la murmuración de los israelitas fue castigada con una plaga de serpientes venenosas. Cuando se arrepintieron, Dios mandó a Moisés construir una serpiente de bronce y levantarla en un mástil, de forma que los mordidos por las serpientes con sólo mirarla, quedaran sanos. Y Jesús nos dice: "Así tiene que ser elevado el Hijo del hombre, para que todo el que cree en él tenga vida eterna" (Juan 3:14); nos está hablando de su cruz.

Viernes Santo: Cruz de Cristo elevada sobre la tierra. Cruz de Salvación. Miremos arrepentidos de nuestros pecados y con amor a la Cruz en la cual está nuestro Salvador.

El jueves 19 de marzo es la festividad de San José, patrono de las vocaciones sacerdotales. Recemos para que haya vocaciones, para que no nos falten los sacerdotes que presidan nuestra comunidad, celebren la Eucaristía, nos conforten en nuestra enfermedad, despidan a nuestros difuntos; nos consuelen, recen por nosotros y unidos recemos con ellos a Dios.

Que Dios los bendiga y les de la paz,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

March 15th

The Gospel today brings us to the most well-known verse of the Bible, John 3:16 -- God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that everyone who believes in him might not perish, but have everlasting life. His will is that human beings not perish -- neither by losing their salvation, nor by being deprived of the opportunity to grasp it by being born and eventually hearing God's word and living the faith. God always shows himself to be on the side of human life.

15 de Marzo

El Evangelio de hoy nos lleva al versículo más conocido de la Biblia, Juan 3:16 - Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo que dio a su Hijo unigénito, para que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna. Su voluntad es que los seres humanos no perezcan - ni perdiendo su salvación, ni siendo privados de la oportunidad de comprenderlo al haber nacido y eventualmente oído la palabra de Dios y viviendo la fe. Dios siempre se muestra del lado de la vida humana.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
EVERY THURSDAY

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. in the Church

The Eucharist is Jesus; Jesus is Love and 'Love is not loved.' (St. John of the Cross) So many are unwilling to make even the slightest sacrifice to visit Him, while He was willing to sacrifice everything to be with us in this most Blessed Sacrament. He laid down His mortal life for us so that He may raise us up to Divine life in this Holy Sacrament. "Greater love than this no one has, than to lay down his life for his friends." (Jn 15:13)

"Could you not watch one hour with Me?" (Mk 14:37)(Taken from: Rosary Meditations from Mother Teresa of Calcutta)Questions, call 705-0378 or 954-8476.

EXPOSICION DEL SANTISIMO SACRAMENTO
TODOS LOS JUEVES

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. en la Iglesia

La Eucaristía es Jesús, y Jesús es Amor, pero el 'Amor no es amado.' (S. Juan de la Cruz) Hay tantos que no quieren hacer ni el más pequeño sacrificio para visitarlo, mientras que El estuvo dispuesto a sacrificarlo todo para estar con nosotros en este Santísimo Sacramento. El entregó su vida por nosotros para poder elevarnos hasta Su vida divina en este Santísimo Sacramento, "Nadie tiene mayor amor que el que da la vida por sus amigos" (Jn 15, 13).

"¿Ni una hora has podido velar?" (Mc 14, 37).
 (Tomado de: Meditaciones del Rosario de la Madre Teresa de Calcuta)Sii tiene preguntas, llame al 705-0378 o 954-8476.

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

“THE LIGHT IS ON FOR YOU” – This Lent the Diocese of Venice is again undertaking the “The Light is On for You” campaign.
