The Octave Day of Christmas
Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary
The Mother of God

January 1, 2017

Numbers 6:22-27; Galatians 4:4-7; Luke 2:16-21
Psalm 67

Dear Families:

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God:

Eight days after the birth of Jesus we celebrate His circumcision - the rite which God gave to Abraham and his descendants as a sign of the covenant between him and his chosen people (Gen 17:9-13; Lev 12:3), and the name that the Angel of the Annunciation spoke to Mary (Lk 1:31) and that God gave in a dream to Joseph (Mt 1:21).

That name, which in Hebrew means "God saves", is precisely appropriate for the One who would go on to "...save His people from their sins..." (Mt 1:21). Moreover, as St. Peter said to the Sanhedrin (Jewish Supreme Council, which decided state and religious affairs), "... there is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race, by which we are to be saved..." (Acts 4:12).

Today is the day to acknowledge the meaning and scope of the name of Jesus to us all; the name given to the Son of God-made-man, on a day like today, by His biological mother (Mary) and His legal father (Joseph).

Theologically: The liturgy celebrates, on this day, the divine motherhood of Mary. St. Paul assures us, in his letter to the Galatians (today's second reading), that God sent his Son born of woman.

With the title "Mother of God," Her Son's followers greeted the Virgin Mary from the beginning of Christianity. The controversies with Nestorius, who refused this privilege to Mary in the V century, contributed to a deeper theological study of the issue, which was ultimately resolved as a dogma of faith, in the Council of Ephesus (Ecumenical III), year 431.

On that occasion the faithful accompanied the Council Fathers in a solemn procession along the great city, singing for the first time what is now the second part of the Hail Mary: "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now, and at the hour of our death". Amen.

It is true that Mary gave birth only to the human nature that the Word of God informed. However, inasmuch as human generation always ends in person, and since, in Christ, there is no human person, but only the second person of the Holy Trinity, it follows that the motherhood of Mary ends in God, and therefore, she is rightly called the Mother of God. From this fact, proceeds the very special dignity of Mary.

La Octava de Navidad
Solemnidad de Santa María
Madre de Dios

1ro de Enero del 2017

Números 6:22-27; Gálata 4:4-7; Lucas 2:16-21
Salmo 67 [66]

Queridas Familias:

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de Santa María, Madre de Dios:

A los ocho días del nacimiento de Jesús celebramos su circuncisión, el rito que Dios impuso a Abraham y su descendencia como signo de la alianza establecida entre él y el pueblo elegido (Gen 17:9-13 Lev 12:3), y la imposición del nombre que el ángel de la Anunciación indicó a María (Lc 1:31) y Dios en sueños a José (Mt 1:21).

Ese nombre, que en hebreo significa "Dios Salva", corresponde exactamente al que "salvará a su pueblo de sus pecados" (Mt 1:21), porque, como dirá San Pedro a los del Sanedrín (Consejo Supremo de los Judíos que trataba y decidía los asuntos de Estado y de Religión) "...no hay salvación en ningún otro, ya que no hay bajo el cielo otro nombre dado a los hombres, por el que nosotros podamos salvarnos" (Hch 4:12).

Hoy es el día de agradecer el significado y alcance que para nosotros tiene el nombre de Jesús, que al Hijo de Dios hecho hombre impusieron tal día como hoy su madre biológica (María) y su padre legal (José).

Teológicamente: La liturgia celebra este día la maternidad divina de María. Nos asegura San Pablo en la carta a los Gálatas (segunda lectura de hoy), que Dios envió a su hijo nacido de mujer.

Con el título de "Madre de Dios", saludó a la Virgen la piedad de los seguidores de su Hijo a partir de los comienzos del cristianismo. Las controversias con Nestorio, que en el siglo V negaba a María este privilegio, contribuyeron a que se profundizara teológicamente este tema, que por último fue definido como dogma de fe en el Concilio de Efeso (III Ecuménico) el año 431.

En aquella ocasión el pueblo fiel acompañó a los padres conciliares en una solemne procesión, que recorrió la gran ciudad cantando por primera vez lo que hoy es la segunda parte del Ave María: "Santa María, Madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros pecadores ahora y en la hora de nuestra muerte. Amén.

Es cierto que María sólo engendró la naturaleza humana que el Verbo de Dios hizo suya. Pero la generación humana termina siempre en persona. Y puesto que en Cristo no hay persona humana, sino sólo la segunda persona de la Santísima Trinidad, la maternidad de María termina en Dios y, por eso, con todo derecho es llamada Madre de Dios. De ahí proviene la especialísima dignidad de María

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

Luckily for us, Jesus proclaimed her, from the cross: Mother of all the baptized. It is logical that today we thank God for having elevated Mary to the rank of Mother of God, and we also thank Him for giving her to us, as our Mother.

Today the Church celebrates World Day of Peace. Jesus is the most effective promoter of peace (among men). Peace behind God's back is a utopia. If men are not made right with God (in good standing with God), the causes of strife and war will not disappear. Working for the reconciliation of man with God is our best pacifist campaign. Let us pray that our actions will be guided by His grace and subject to His will.

The end of a year must be for us an occasion of thanksgiving for the gifts received and the opportunity to ask forgiveness for our ingratitude to God's love.

The beginning of the year invites us to reform our goal to be better, and ask for us and for all God's blessing; the blessing that God taught Moses and Aaron, as stated in today's first reading: "The Lord bless you and keep you, The Lord shine His face upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord look upon you kindly and grant you peace" (Numbers 6:24-26).

Let us pray with Zechariah: "... That we see the star of the Messiah, to shine on those who sit in darkness and death's shadow, to guide our steps into the path of peace" (Luke 1:78-79).

"HAPPY NEW YEAR"

Father Celestino Gutiérrez, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 3...

Para suerte nuestra, Jesús desde la cruz la proclamó Madre de todos los bautizados. Es lógico que hoy agradezcamos a Dios el haber elevado a María la categoría de Madre suya y le agradezcamos también habérsela dado por Madre a nosotros.

Hoy la Iglesia celebra la Jornada Mundial de la Paz. Jesús es el más eficaz promotor de la paz horizontal (entre los hombres). La paz horizontal de espaldas a Dios es una utopía. Si los hombres no se ponen a bien con Dios, no desaparecerán las causas de las disensiones y de las guerras. Trabajar por la reconciliación de los hombres con Dios es nuestra mejor campaña pacifista. Pidamos a Dios que lo sepamos hacer, viviendo todos en gracia de Dios y sometidos a su voluntad.

El final de un año deber ser para nosotros motivo de acción de gracias por los bienes recibidos y ocasión para pedir perdón por nuestra mala correspondencia al amor de Dios.

El principio de año nos invita a reformar nuestro propósito de ser mejores, y a pedir para nosotros y para todos la bendición divina, esa bendición que Dios mismo enseñó a Moisés y Aarón, como leemos en la primera lectura de hoy: "El Señor te bendiga y te proteja, ilumine su rostro sobre ti y te conceda su favor; el Señor se fije en ti y te conceda la paz" (Números 6:24-26).

Pidamos con Zacarías: "...Que nos visite la estrella del Mesías, para iluminar a los que viven en tinieblas y en sombras de muerte, para guiar nuestros pasos por el camino de la paz" (Lucas 1:78-79).

"FELIZ AÑO NUEVO"

Strong families are an integral aspect of the Culture of Life. It is precisely the breakdown of family structure that increases the temptation to abort, or to resort to euthanasia or a lack of proper care for the elderly. On the other hand, the communion of persons that comes from giving oneself to the other in selfless love is what creates the proper context for saying a generous “yes” to life. The word “family” can stand for “Forget About Me; I love You.”

Las familias fuertes son un aspecto integral de la Cultura de la Vida. Es precisamente el colapso de la estructura familiar lo que aumenta la tentación de abortar, o de recurrir a la eutanasia o la falta de atención adecuada para los ancianos. Por otro lado, la comunión de las personas que viene de dars al otro en el amor desinteresado es lo que crea el context apropiado para decir un generoso “sí” a la vida. La palabra “familia” puede significar “Olvídate de mí, yo te amo”.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Diocese of Venice is blessed with many generous and dedicated priests who have followed Christ's call to act in His person in the priesthood. The Diocese is further blessed with vocations to the priesthood, evidenced by our present number of 21 seminarians. Your support of the Annual Seminary Collection continues to be crucial as challenges increase for a proper formation environment and education of our future priests.

This special collection ensures that we continue to have good priests to serve you and your family. It supports the Church's mission of cultivating and fostering priestly vocations, and supporting the next generation of diocesan priests in their studies. Further, this collection supports our seminarians who are studying at St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary in nearby Boynton Beach.

Funds are needed to assist our future priests with tuition, room and board, health care, transportation, and other expenses, including inviting more men to consider the priesthood. Your gift to the Seminarian Collection helps offset these costs.

Parishes in the Diocese of Venice will conduct this annual collection for Seminary Support the weekend of January 7 and 8, 2017. Your gift provides vital financial support of the Seminary for the future of the Church in Florida.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for the support of our seminarians.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Delane
