FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

March 18th, 2018

Jer 31:31-34; Heb 5:7-9; John 12:20-33

Psalm 51

Dear Families:

The anniversary celebration of the redemptive death of Christ is near. The death of God for the salvation of men is the clearest evidence of His love toward us: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (Jn 15:13)

In considering the death of Christ, we cannot overlook another exemplary aspect of this magnificent event: the necessity of His death as a prelude to resurrection. Thus is revealed the meaning of the suffering and death of man.

As human beings, we are so attached to life that we regard it as the ultimate good. The author of the Book of Job sets it forth very well with this phrase: "All that a man has will he give for his life" (Job 2:4). Hence, we find it a tragic experience to see our earthly life end. The fictitious consolation of believing that we somehow survive in the memory of posterity — the notion that we somehow survive through our works — is voided, in death.

It is the Word of God, alone, which assures us that there is life after death: "I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob — not the God of the dead, but of the living" (Mt 22:32) Man is, through death, called to another life, which St. Paul calls it "the real life". This is the life that is truly life is what awaits us after death. Seen this way, death is not the end, but rather, it is the beginning of true life.

Christ dying and rising as the head of humanity saved — enlightens the meaning of death and guarantees, to those who believe, its value as a transition to real life. Jesus said it so beautifully in today's passage of the gospel: "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it bears much fruit ... Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be." (John 12:24 and 26).

Man's death, like Christ's death, is a necessary step to enter the true life — the life that is forever. The grain must die for the spike to be born. The caterpillar has to disappear for the emergence of the butterfly. An eggshell must break in order for a chick to hatch. A fetus has to give up life from within the mother's womb and be detached from the umbilical cord, to live his own life. If the grain of wheat, the silk worm, the eggshell, or the unborn child were aware, they too would be afraid of the impending transformation. They would, as we do, suffer in ignorance of the real life that awaits. Over against this ignorance is our faith: "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep." (1Th 4:13-17). Only through death are we ushered into true life.

Let us have faith as did the saints. Saint Theresa so eloquently tells us: "I live without living in myself, and in such a way do I hope, that I die because I do not die."

Monday, March 19th, is the feast of St. Joseph, patron of priesthood vocations. Let us pray for vocations, that there will not be a lack of priests in our community, to celebrate the Eucharist, to comfort us in our sickness, to farewell the dying, to console us, to pray for us and together, we can pray to God.

The Annunciation of the Lord:

On Monday, April 9, we observe the feast of the Annunciation of the Lord. The Church is committed with all its energy to fight in favor of life. I ask for your constant prayers for an end to this terrible spectacle of abortions. Each month we will have a Mass for this intention as follows:

Wednesday April 25 at 7:30 a.m.
Friday May 25 at 7:30 a.m.
Monday June 25 at 7:30 a.m.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

QUINTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

18 de marzo del 2018

Jer 31:31-34; Heb 5:7-9; Juan 12:20-33

Salmo 51 [50]

Queridas familias:

Se acerca la celebración aniversario de la muerte redentora de Cristo. La muerte de Dios para la Salvación de los hombres es la prueba más evidente de su amor hacia nosotros: "No hay mayor prueba de amor que la de dar la vida por los amigos." (Jn 15:13)

Al considerar la muerte de Cristo no debemos dejar a un lado el otro aspecto ejemplar de este sublime acontecimiento: la muerte de Cristo, que es una muerte para resucitar, nos desvela el sentido del sufrimiento y de la muerte del hombre.

Aferrados a la vida que vivimos, los seres humanos la consideramos como el bien supremo. El autor del libro de Job lo enuncia muy bien con esta frase: "Todo lo que el hombre posee lo da por su vida" (Job 2:4). De ahí que nos resulte vitalmente trágica la experiencia de ver que se acaba. El consuelo ficticio de pervivir en el recuerdo de la posteridad; el pensar que nuestras obras van a pervivir, resulta vitalmente nulo si la persona deja de existir.

La revelación nos asegura que después de la muerte seguiremos viviendo. El Dios de Abraham, de Isaac y de Jacob no es un Dios de muertos, sino de vivos. (Mt 22:32) El hombre está llamado a otra vida; San Pablo la llama "la vida verdadera". La vida que es verdaderamente vida es la que nos espera después de la muerte. Vista así, la muerte no es el final; es el comienzo de la vida verdadera.

Cristo muriendo y resucitando como cabeza de la humanidad salvada, ilumina el sentido de la muerte y garantiza a los que creen, su valor como tránsito a la vida de verdad. Lo dijo bellamente Jesús en el pasaje del evangelio que hoy leemos: "Si el grano de trigo no cae en tierra y muere, queda infecundo; pero si muere, da mucho fruto. El que quiera servirme que me siga, y donde estoy, allí estará también mi servidor" (Juan 12:24 y 26).

La muerte del hombre, como la de Cristo es el paso obligado del hombre para entrar en la vida que lo es (la que lo es de verdad y "para siempre"). Tiene que morir el grano para que nazca la espiga. Tiene que desaparecer el gusano para que surja la mariposa. Tiene que romperse el cascarón del huevo para que salga el pollo. Tiene que renunciar el feto a la vida en el seno de la madre, y hay que cortar el cordón umbilical, para que viva su propia vida al aire libre. Si tuvieran conciencia el grano de trigo, el gusano de seda, el huevo o el niño antes de nacer, tendrían tanto miedo como tenemos nosotros a morir. Les faltaría la experiencia de lo que van a ser después de su transformación, como nos falta a nosotros la vivencia de la otra vida verdadera que detrás de la muerte nos aguarda. Pero lo sabemos por Cristo: "Porque si creemos que Jesús murió — y resucitó — de la misma manera Dios llevará consigo a quienes murieron en Jesús" (1Tes 4:13s) La muerte es la entrada en la vida.

Tengamos fe como la tuvieron los santos. Nos dec'a Santa Teresa bellamente: "Vivo sin vivir en mí, y tan alta vida espero, que muero porque no muero."

El lunes 19 de marzo es la festividad de San José, patrono de las vocaciones sacerdotales. Recemos para que haya vocaciones, para que no nos falten los sacerdotes que presidan nuestra comunidad, celebren la Eucaristía, nos conforten en nuestra enfermedad, despidan a nuestros difuntos; nos consuelen, recen por nosotros y unidos recemos con ellos a Dios.

La Anunciación del Señor:

El lunes 9 de abril celebramos la fiesta de la Anunciación del Señor. La Iglesia está comprometida con todas sus energías a luchar a favor de la vida. Les pido sus oraciones constantes para que cese este terrible espectáculo de los abortos. Cada mes tendremos una Misa por esta intención:

Miércoles 25 de abril, a las 7:30 a.m.
Viernes 25 de mayo, a las 7:30 a.m.
Lunes 25 de junio, a las 7:30 a.m.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Párroco
