Third Sunday of Easter

April 15, 2018

Act 3:13-15, 17-19, 1 Jn 2:1-5a; Lk 24:35-48
Psalm 4

Dear Families:

During the Sundays of Easter, we heard the stories of the apparitions of Jesus to his disciples. Let us reflect on this in this message.

While Jesus was with his disciples, He revealed Himself in many ways. For us today, let us have faith that Jesus is much closer than we think or we can even imagine.

In the first reading, St. Peter tells us that the way to know the Risen Lord is by reforming our lives. If we can change our lives and turn to God, we would recognize the strength of a new life. The Apostle Peter knew much about the value of repentance; he had the courage to recognize his sin of denying Jesus; and with faith he placed himself in the Lord's hands.

In the second reading, the Apostle John tells us that in order to know Jesus, we must do what he asked of us: to love one another. When Jesus appears to his disciples, he did not come from outside; He was there and He made Himself visible to them. We, by faith, should feel the presence of Jesus among the community of believers gather to pray and to hear his teachings and to celebrate the Eucharist and other sacraments. He is there. We should also feel Him present in those who suffer and need help. We should strive that His LOVE be reflected in the love between couples, children, grandparents; in our friendship with neighbors; in our work.

May we feel, on a daily basis, the presence of the Risen Jesus, who walks with us. May God bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

You alone, O Lord, bring security to my dwelling.

Tercer Domingo de Pascua

15 de abril del 2018

Hch 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 Juan 2:1-5a; Lc 24:35-48
Salmo 4

Queridas familias:

Durante estos domingos de Pascua escuchamos los relatos de las apariciones de Jesús a sus discípulos. Vamos a reflexionar sobre esto en este mensaje.

Jesús se reveló de muchas maneras a sus discípulos, mientras estaba con ellos. Para nosotros hoy: tengamos fe de que Jesús está mucho más cerca de lo que pensamos o nos imaginamos.

En la primera lectura San Pedro nos dice que el camino para conocer al Señor Resucitado es reformar la vida. Si podemos cambiar nuestras vidas y volvernos a Dios conoceremos la fuerza de una nueva vida. El apóstol Pedro sabía mucho del valor del arrepentimiento; él tuvo la valentía de reconocer su pecado de haber negado a Jesús y con fe se puso en las manos del Señor.

En la segunda lectura el apóstol Juan nos dice que para conocer a Jesús debemos hacer lo que él nos pidió: amarnos unos a otros. Cuando Jesús aparece a sus discípulos, no llega de afuera, él está ahí y se hace visible para ellos. Nosotros por la fe debemos sentir la presencia de Jesús en medio de la comunidad, de los que creen y se reúnen para orar, para escuchar sus enseñanzas y para la celebración de la Eucaristía y los demás sacramentos. Él está ahí. También debemos sentirlo presente en los que sufren y necesitan ayuda. Y esforzarnos para que su AMOR aparezca en el amor entre los esposos, con los hijos, los abuelos...; en la amistad con los vecinos, en nuestros trabajos...

Que cada día sintamos la presencia de Jesús Resucitado que camina a nuestro lado. Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Sólo tu Señor, eres mi tranquilidad.
-Salmo 4:9

What Does the Gospel Say About Refugees?

1. The Catholic Church in the United States has been helping immigrants and refugees since the founding of this nation. Indeed, it is what the Gospel calls us to do: in Matthew (25:35) Jesus tells his disciples, "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me." Source: Matthew, Chapter 25
2. Refugees are fleeing persecution and violence and have suffered great loss, including loss of their homes, livelihoods, possessions and families. Only 1% of these refugees get resettled. Migration Refugee Services (MRS) assists with food, clothing, shelter, employment, English as a second language, and orientation to a new community and culture. Source: MRS
3. MRS works to create "a world where immigrants, refugees, migrants, and people on the move are treated with dignity, respect, welcome and belonging." Source: MRS Vision Statement.

¿Que dice el Evangelio Acerca de los Refugiados?

- La Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos ha estado ayudando a inmigrantes y refugiados desde la fundación de esta nación. De hecho, es lo que el Evangelio nos llama a hacer: en Mateo (25:35), Jesús les dice a sus discípulos: "Tenía hambre y me diste de comer, tuve sed y me diste de beber, fui un extraño y me recibistes." Fuente: Mateo, Capítulo 25
2. Los refugiados huyen de la persecución y la violencia y han sufrido grandes pérdidas, incluida la pérdida de sus hogares, sus medios de subsistencia, sus posesiones y sus familias. Solo el 1% de estos refugiados se reasientan. Migration Refugee Services (MRS) ayuda con comida, ropa, vivienda, empleo, inglés como segundo idioma y orientación a una nueva comunidad y cultura.  3. MRS trabaja para crear "un mundo donde los inmigrantes, refugiados, migrantes y personas en movimiento sean tratados con dignidad, respeto, bienvenida y pertenencia". Fuente: Declaración de la Visión de MRS.
