Psalm 23

Dear Families:

The Word of God presents Jesus as the Good Shepherd, always attentive and sensitive to the needs of His people.

We, like the apostles did after a week of travel, return with the Master; like them, we gather around Jesus to hear His word and partake of his Body and Blood.

Jesus is the true Shepherd who understands the exhaustion and fatigue that beset us. Jesus is moved by the people that follow Him; He realizes their need to listen to His saving Word. He sees their moral and social disorientation, and perceives their desire to find a spiritual guide, to feed them, give them rest and energy to follow and serve Him in His Church.

Jesus is always ready to welcome all, regardless of weariness and fatigue that He may feel. They are always in first place, taking preference above everything. This is a great lesson for all of us: priests, laity, deacons and all the people of God.

Working for God and spending energy in the service of the Gospel, is certainly a very noble and enthusiastic task. At the same time, it is a very overwhelming commitment. Jesus knows very well that we need rest, and that we all need moments of peace and relaxation. This is why He invites His apostles to walk away from their daily tasks and find a place of solitude and peace.

In life, we need to know to find spaces to replenish our strength; to find God and ourselves; to listen to His Word and partake of the Eucharist that makes every believer a place where Jesus is present so that we can continue to regenerate spiritually.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Decimosexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

22 de julio del 2018

Jer 23:1-6; Efe 2:13-18; Mc 6:30-34

Salmo 23 [22]

Queridas familias:

La palabra de Dios nos presenta a Jesús como el Buen Pastor, siempre atento y sensible a las necesidades de su pueblo.

Nosotros, como los apóstoles, hemos vuelto con el Maestro, después de haber recorrido una semana de camino. Como ellos, nos reunimos alrededor de Jesús para oír su palabra y participar de su Cuerpo y Sangre.

Jesús es el verdadero Pastor que comprende el cansancio y la fatiga que nos agobian. Frente a la gente que lo sigue, Jesús se conmueve, se da cuenta de su deseo de escuchar su Palabra que salva. Ve su desorientación moral, social y percibe el deseo que aquellos tienen de encontrar un guía espiritual, que los alimente, les dé descanso y también energía para seguirle y servirle en su Iglesia.

Jesús está siempre dispuesto para acoger a todos, no importa el cansancio y la fatiga que Él pueda sentir. Los demás están en primer lugar; ellos tienen siempre la preferencia. Esta es una gran lección para todos: sacerdotes, laicos comprometidos, diáconos y todos del pueblo de Dios.

Trabajar por Dios; gastar las energías al servicio del Evangelio es ciertamente una muy noble y entusiasta tarea, pero es, al mismo tiempo, un compromiso muy agobiante. Jesús sabe muy bien que necesitamos descanso; que a todos nos hace falta momentos de paz y de relajamiento. Por eso invita a sus apóstoles a alejarse del trajín diario y buscar un lugar solitario y apacible.

En la vida hay que saber encontrar espacios para reponer las fuerzas, para encontrarnos con Dios y con nosotros mismos, para escuchar su Palabra y tomar parte en la Eucaristía que hace de cada creyente un lugar de la presencia de Cristo que nos regenera espiritualmente.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Pbroca

Share the Journey Continues - The Diocese of Venice continues to promote "Share the Journey", a worldwide two-year initiative of Pope Francis. The Diocese continues to run a series in the Mustard Seed designed to answer questions focusing more specifically on Refugee Resettlement. This will serve as an aide to build bridges of reconciliation, understanding and hospitality, in keeping with the spirit of Share the Journey. The topics covered include: "What Does the Gospel Say About Refugees?", "What is the Economic Impact?" and "Are Refugees a Burden?", etc.

Below is the last of the series for ALL PARISHES.

Are Refugees a Burden?

1. The primary goal of the U.S. refugee resettlement program is to help provide protection to refugees and help them become self-sufficient. (Sources: U.S. Refugee Act, Code of Federal Regulations 45 400.1)
2. Within a period of 2-4 months, most refugees manage to find a stable job, send their children to school and pay taxes. One study in Cleveland found that in 2016, refugees generated a total economic impact of $88.2 million in spending that supported 1,220 jobs in the region. In addition, refugees and refugee service organizations contributed $4.5 million in taxes to the state, county, and municipal governments. (Sources: Chmura Economics & Analytics; MPI)
3. Likewise, between 2002 and 2012 refugees started 38 businesses that employed 141 locals in the Cleveland area. In addition to contributing economically, refugees culturally enrich communities and parishes with new perspectives, histories and cultures. (Sources: Chmura Economics & Analytics; MPI)

Bereavement Support - Have you experienced the loss of a child by miscarriage or stillbirth? Grieving the loss of a child is always very difficult, but grieving the loss by miscarriage or stillbirth has added complexities that are mostly ignored by family and friends. Often miscarriages are never even discussed with people and if a mom/dad does, it is often discounted as "no big deal." It is as if nothing really ever happened. The Office of Family Life is hosting "There is Hope: Miscarriage and Stillborn Bereavement Seminar from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., Thursday, August 2, at St. Patrick Parish, 7900 Bee Ridge Road, Sarasota. The evening will be presented by Deacon Henry deMena who holds a master's degree in counseling with extensive training and experience in Bereavement. There will be prayer, a presentation and an opportunity for to share, if you want to. Dinner will be provided at no cost but we require sign up at www.dioceseofvenice.org/calendar so we can plan for food. We hope you can join us!

2019 Gala NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

The annual St. Jude Gala is scheduled for February 15, 2019. The theme: "One World, One Family," embraces the Anglo and Latino heritages at our Parish.

Gala reservations produce only a small component of generated funds. Raffles, Chances, and Auctions are necessary for a successful profit.

For the 2019 Gala, we are planning to raffle off a 3-5-day trip or a short-term stay at a vacation home or condo. To make this happen, we need your help! We are seeking individuals within our community who can secure a free trip/cruise OR provide a short-term vacation home or condo. Perhaps a snowbird's condo for a summer vacation week? Or a cute cottage in the Carolina mountains? If you can help the Committee boost Gala ticket sales that will profit St. Jude's, please contact Peggy at: fortep@msn.com or call 717-395-1119.

"He who is generous will be blessed" Proverbs 22:9.

La Gala del 2019 NECESITA SU APOYO

La Gala anual de St. Jude está programada para el 15 de febrero de 2019. El tema: "Un Mundo, Una Familia", abraza las herencias Anglo y Latinas de nuestra Parroquia.

Las reservaciones para asistir a la Gala sólo generan una pequeña fuente de los fondos generados. Rifas, al azar, y las subastas son necesarias para obtener beneficios extraordinarios.

Para la gala 2019, tenemos en planes sortear un Viaje de 3-5 días o una estadía corta en una casa de vacaciones o condominio. Para hacer esto posible, necesitamos su ayuda! Estamos buscando individuos dentro de nuestra comunidad que puedan asegurar un viaje o crucero libre de costo o proporcionar una casa o condominio de vacaciones por un corto tiempo. Quizás un condominio de Snowbirds por una semana de vacaciones de verano? O una linda cabaña en las montañas de Las Carolinas? Si usted puede ayudar al Comité a promover las ventas de boletos de la Gala en beneficio de St. Jude, favor de comunicarse con Peggy a fortep@msn.com o llame al 717-395-1119.
