Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15; Eph 4:17, 20-24; John 6:24-35
Psalm 78

Dear Families:

Today's gospel presents us with the similarities and differences of the Eucharist with the manna in the desert, referred to from the first reading of Exodus. The protest of the Israelites against Moses and Aaron was overwhelming: "Would that we had died at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!" (Ex 16.3)

In response, God announces to Moses that He will make bread rain down from heaven. When the next morning, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground... Moses told the people: This is the bread which the Lord has given you to eat.

In the gospel account, Jesus, knowing that after the miracle the people were going to come and carry him off to make him king, compelled the apostles to embark for the opposite shore. He dismissed the people, went up the mountain to pray and, at dawn, walking on the sea joined His apostles. On landing, He meets the people again and reproaches them their materialism: "You are looking for me not because you saw signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life." There follows a critical dialogue between the people and Jesus. In the end Jesus gives this great revelation about the Eucharist: "I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." (Jn 6, 48-51)

We have to help the children and youth recognize and believe firmly that Jesus, present in the Eucharist, is life for the world. He is the gift from God: the body and blood of his Son, made into nourishment for our supernatural and eternal life.

Receiving this nourishment and giving thanks to God is part of the mystery of the sacrament of the Eucharist. May God give us always this bread to eat.

Today and in the following Sundays, we remember Jesus' discourse on the Bread of Life, which occupies all of chapter 6 of the Gospel of St. John about the Eucharist.

Peace and good for everyone.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Decimoctavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

5 de Agosto del 2018

Exodo 16:2-4, 12-15; Efe 4:17, 20-24; Juan 6:24-35
Salmo 78 [77]

Queridas familias:

El evangelio nos presenta las semejanzas y las diferencias de la Eucaristía con el maná del desierto, que nos refiere la primera lectura tomada del Éxodo. La protesta de los israelitas contra Moisés y Aarón fue contundente: "¡Ojalá hubiéramos muerto a manos del Señor en Egipto, cuando nos sentáramos alrededor de la olla de carne y comíamos pan hasta hartarnos. Nos habéis traído a este desierto para matar de hambre a toda la comunidad!" (Ex 16,3)

En respuesta Dios anuncia a Moisés que va a hacer llover pan del cielo. Cuando a la mañana siguiente apareció en la superficie del desierto un polvo parecido a la escarcha. Moisés dijo al pueblo: Este es el pan que el Señor les da de comer.

En el relato del evangelio, Jesús sabiendo que después del milagro la gente piensa hacerle rey, obliga a los apóstoles a embarcarse rumbo a la orilla opuesta, despidiéndose como pudo a la gente, subió al monte a orar y, de madrugada, caminando sobre las aguas se unió a sus apóstoles. Al desembarcar vuelve a encontrarse con la gente y les echa en cara su materialismo: "¿Los buscan porque comieron hasta saciarse. Trabajen, no por el alimento que perece, sino por el que perdura dando vida eterna." Sigue a continuación un diálogo decisivo entre la gente y Jesús. Al final Jesús les da esta gran revelación acerca de la Eucaristía: "Yo soy el pan de vida. Sus padres comieron el maná en el desierto y murieron. Este es el pan que baja del cielo, para que quien lo coma no muera. Yo soy el pan vivo bajado del cielo. Si uno come de este pan vivirá para siempre, y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para la vida del mundo." (Jn 6, 48-51)

Ayudemos a los niños y a los jóvenes a reconocer, a creer firmemente, que Jesús presente en la Eucaristía, es la vida para el mundo. Es el regalo de Dios: el cuerpo y la sangre de su Hijo, hechos alimento de nuestra vida sobrenatural y eterna.

Recibirlo y darle gracias a Dios es parte de este misterio del sacramento de la Eucaristía. Que Dios nos dé siempre a comer de este pan.

Hoy y en los próximos domingos, recordamos el discurso de Jesús sobre el Pan de Vida que ocupa todo el capítulo 6 del evangelio de San Juan acerca de la Eucaristía.

Paz y bien para todos.

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

July 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Church in Africa is growing rapidly! However, too often there are not enough local pastoral resources to support people in their faith. In Malawi, for example, young people comprise nearly two-thirds of the population. The Church there reflects this youthful face as well but does not have enough staff or ministers to reach these young Catholics and help them grow in their faith. Without support, young people run the risk of falling away from the Church.

Your generosity to the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa can make it possible for the Catholic Church in Malawi to train leaders to connect with and guide the young people. These young people will feel the extended hand of God because of your generous contributions. Catholic youth of Malawi, through your help, will become a powerful force for good and new messengers of the Gospel, develop spiritually and grow in their Catholic identity.

The Collection for Solidarity with the Church in Africa will be taken up the weekend of August 11 and 12, 2018. When you contribute to the Collection for Solidarity with the Church in Africa, you are helping people across the African continent grow closer to Christ and to the Church.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
