Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 12, 2018

1 Kings 19:4-8; Eph 4:30-5:2; John 6:41-51

Psalm 34

Dear Families:

Today, the first reading gives us another clear announcement of the Eucharist, in bread and water, offered to the prophet of Tishbe (Elijah) as a per diem for his long journey to the mountain of God.

Elijah acted in the kingdom of Israel under the reign of King Ahab, who was married to Jezebel. She was committed, under oath, to end Elijah's life. He was afraid, and fled for his life, going to Beer-sheba of Judah. He left his servant there and went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death. After he laid down under the tree and fell asleep, an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. He noticed that there was a hearth cake and a jug of water near his head. After he ate and drank, he laid down again, but the angel of the Lord came back a second time, touched him, and ordered him to "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate and drank. Then, strengthened by the food, he walked, for forty days and forty nights, to the mountain of God, Horeb. (1 Kings 19: 5-8).

A Christian's journey is longer than that of Elijah's. This journey is not measured by miles traveled, in the physical plane. Rather, it is about striving to reach God, in the moral dimension. However, God is infinitely distant from us, in the moral dimension; so far that no human could ever hope complete the journey. Yet, "I in him we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17:28)

The miracle of the multiplication of loaves and fishes is related in the Gospel of Mark 8:2-3, when Jesus said: "My heart is moved with pity for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days, and have nothing to eat. If I send them away, hungry, to their homes, they will collapse on the way, as some of them have come a great distance."

The paths that men and women take through life is often very long and desolate, sometimes barren of the sustenance we need for such an arduous trip. Fortunately, in the Eucharist, the Lord has given us the nourishment that sustains us, so that we do not falter.

When the disciples heard Jesus speak of the bread of life, they said to Him: "Lord, give us this bread always". (Jn 6:34) We also ask Him, in the Lord's Prayer, to "give us this day our daily bread" (Mt 6:11).

It is necessary to go to the supermarket to buy the food we need. Not only must we work to get this perishable food for our bodies, but we also must take the necessary steps to acquire the provisions for our souls - the food that lasts forever. As we get in the checkout line at the supermarket, so let us also get in line to receive communion - the Bread of Life which is "free".

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Decimonoveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

12 de Agosto del 2018

1 Reyes 19:4-8; Efe 4:30-5:2; Juan 6:41-51

Salmo 34 [33]

Queridas familias:

Hoy, la primera lectura nos presenta otro anuncio claro de la Eucaristía en el pan y el agua ofrecidos al profeta de Tisbe (Elías), como un anticipo para su largo viaje hasta el monte de Dios.

Actuaba Elías en el reino de Israel bajo el reinado de Ajah, casado con Jezabel, que se había comprometido con juramento a dar muerte a Elías. El tuvo miedo y huyó para poner su vida a salvo. Llegó a Berseba de Judá y allí dejó a su criado. Continuó por el desierto una jornada de camino, y al final se sentó bajo un arbusto y se desahogó la muerte. Se echó debajo de la retama y se quedó dormido. De pronto un ángel le tocó y le dijo: Levántate y come. Miró Elías y vio a su cabecera un pan cocido en las brasas y una jarra de agua. Comió, bebió y volvió a echarse. Pero el ángel del Señor le tocó por segunda vez diciendo: Levántate y come, que el camino es superior a tus fuerzas. Se levantó Elías, comió y bebió, y con la fuerza de aquel alimento caminó cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hasta el Oreb, el monte de Dios (1Re 19, 5-8).

Muy largo que el viaje de Elías es el viaje del cristiano. No se trata de millas sobre la tierra; se trata de llegar hasta Dios, que no físicamente (En el vivimos, nos movemos y existimos! Hechos 17:28), pero sí moralmente está a infinita distancia de nosotros; distancia que ningún ser humano podrá jamás recorrer.

En el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes y los peces aparece en el relato (sobre todo de Marcos (8:2-3) que Jesús decía: "Me da lástima esta gente, porque hace ya tres días que permanecen conmigo y no tienen qué comer. Si los despidiera en ayunas a sus casas, desfallecerían en el camino, porque algunos de ellos han venido de lejos."

Es muy largo y desierto el camino del hombre y la mujer por la vida, "vacíos los bolsillos de pan y sin encontrar fuentes de agua por el camino". Menos mal que en la Eucaristía el Señor nos ha dejado alimento, para que no desfallezcamos.

Los discípulos, al oír hablar a Jesús del pan de vida, le pidieron: "Señor, danos siempre de ese pan" (Jn 6:34). También nosotros le pedimos en la oración del Padre Nuestro: "Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día".

Es necesario ir al supermercado a comprar el alimento que necesitamos. No solamente debemos trabajar para obtener este alimento perecedero, sino por el que dura para siempre. Hacemos cola para pagar en el supermercado; hagamos también cola para recibir la comunión, (el Pan de Vida, que es gratis.)

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin (August 15)

Masses: 7:30 a.m. & 5:30 p.m.

On August 15, we celebrate the Great Feast of Mary, who, at the end of her mortal life, was assumed into heaven, body and soul. We celebrate the fact that Our Lady participates fully in the resurrection of her Son; that she followed Christ as His first and most perfect disciple. She is also the first human to live on, in the Kingdom of God. We celebrate the Virgin's radiance, as she shines forth, in heaven, as our Lady and Queen. As indicated by Pius XII in the Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus, we celebrate not just the fact that the body of the Virgin Mary was not subject to corruption, but we also celebrate her triumph over death, and her glorification in heaven. We remember, as indicated by Paul VI in his exhortation Marialis cultus, the fulfillment and happiness to which Mary was destined; the glorification of her immaculate soul, her virginal body, and her perfect conformity to Christ, risen from the dead.

In our solemn contemplation of the Assumption, we come to regard the Virgin Mary as the most joyful of all creatures, because she remains eternally with God, in heaven. We recognize her special place, being now in near proximity to God, while still being close to each one of us. We proclaim that Mary has already achieved the goal to which we all aspire: to live forever in the Kingdom of God.

Mary is a model of faith, charity and total union with Christ. She is the ideal of the most perfect holiness, and all this is cause for thanksgiving to God, to lift our spirits and fill us with joy and gladness, to hold in special love and reverence, the Mother of Our Lord - our Mother, who constantly intercedes for us all.

This celebration brings forth, in us, two attitudes: consolation (because we understand that Mary has partaken in the victory over death that is promised to the faithful); and hope (because we believe that we will share in that destiny). Thus, to celebrate the Assumption of the Virgin Mary into heaven is to anticipate the celebration of our own feast of resurrection. May our Heavenly Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary, bless us today and always.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

La Asuncin de la Sant'sima Virgen (15 de agosto)

Misa: 7:00 p.m.

Celebramos la gran fiesta de Mar'a que, al tmino de su vida mortal, fue asunta al cielo en cuerpo y alma; celebramos que Nuestra Seora participa plenamente de la resurreccin de su Hijo, que es la primera que en la tierra sigui a Cristo siendo la primera y m's perfecta disc'pula suya. Y tamb'n la primera criatura que vive en el Reino de Dios, celebramos que la Virgen resplandece en el cielo como Reina y Seora; celebramos, como indica P'o XII en la Constituci'n Apost'lica Munificentissimus Deus, no slo el hecho de que el cuerpo sin vida de la Virgen Mar'a no estuvo sujeto a la corrupcin, sino tamb'n su triunfo sobre la muerte y su glorificacin en el cielo; recordamos, como seala Pablo VI en la Exhortacin Marialis cultus, la plenitud y la felicidad a la que fue destinada Mar'a, la glorificacin de su alma inmaculada y de su cuerpo virginal y su perfecta configuracin con Cristo resucitado de entre los muertos.

En esta solemnidad proclamamos a la Virgen Mar'a como la m's dichosa de todas las criaturas porque permanece eternamente con Dios en la gloria, proclamamos a la Virgen como el ser humano que se encuentra m's cerca de Dios y m's cerca de cada uno de nosotros; proclamamos que Mar'a ya ha realizado el camino y conseguido la meta a la que todos nosotros estamos llamados a alcanzar: vivir para siempre en el Reino de Dios.

Mar'a es modelo de fe, de caridad y de uni'n total con Cristo, es el ideal m's perfecto de santidad, y todo esto es motivo de acci'n de gracias a Dios, de elevar nuestro esp'ritu y llenarnos de gozo y alegr'a, de venerar con amor especial a la Madre de Nuestro Seor y Madre nuestra que constantemente intercede por todos nosotros.

Esta celebraci'n provoca en nosotros dos actitudes: consuelo (porque conocemos la victoria sobre la muerte que se ha cumplido ya en Mar'a) y esperanza (porque de ese destino confiamos participar todos nosotros). De tal manera, celebrar la Asuncin de la Virgen Mar'a a los cielos es celebrar anticipadamente nuestra propia fiesta de resurreccin. Que nuestra Madre del Cielo la Sant'sima Virgen Mar'a nos bendiga hoy y siempre.
