First Sunday of Advent

December 2nd, 2018

Jeremiah 33:14-16; 1 Thes 3:12-4:2; Luke 21:25-28, 34-36
Psalm 25

Dear Families:

Today is the First Sunday of ADVENT. Advent means "wait." This liturgical season lasts four weeks. The Church proposes that we learn to wait by preparing for an expected end. At the end of these four weeks there will be a birth: we will joyfully celebrate the Nativity of Our Savior.

The Bible readings of these four Sundays speak of a waiting world. They tell us of Mary "with child" who sings her joy. Mary's "waiting" ends in the birth of Christ. And so begins with Joseph, Mary and baby Jesus, the family that will forever be a symbol of Christmas. God is born in a family; He is born among us.

I would like us to focus on the example of the family of Nazareth to make of this time a time to help us build our families while waiting for God. When we wait (expect), what comes is due to human effort. For example, we shop to have what it takes to decorate the Christmas tree and the nativity scene; we prepare Christmas dinner, invite family and friends, and exchange gifts. We have endeavored to prepare all these things and in the end Christmas has come, we dined as a family, the tree is beautiful with many ornaments and lights, we exchanged gifts with relatives and friends. With effort we prepared for Christmas Day; it finally comes and everything turns out well.

But now, we must think about whether what we did was also adorned with HOPE. Hope is something that when we achieve what we have been waiting for, it exceeds our expectations, as it is not attained through our efforts, but rather, God is behind what has come.

The people of Israel put effort in their waiting, but they also lived the hope of what God would do for His people. We prepare for Christmas, waiting for this day with the hope that everything will be beautiful, but we must also prepare with the hope that something new comes every Christmas: It is God who wants to be present in our family and wants to live among us. It is God who wants to be in the hearts of children and wants to banish from our lives what keeps us from being true children of God.

Let us prepare for Christmas waiting in hope. In the end, it will be much more beautiful because in every family there will be happiness and God will be born in every family.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Primer Domingo de Adviento

2 de Diciembre del 2018

Jeremías 33:14-16; 1 Tesa 3:12-4:2; Lucas 21:25-28, 34-36
Salmo 25 [24]

Queridas familias:

Hoy es el Primer Domingo de ADVIENTO. Adviento significa "espera." Dura 4 semanas este tiempo litúrgico. La Iglesia nos propone saber esperar preparándonos para un final. Al final de estas cuatro semanas habrá un nacimiento: celebraremos con gozo la Natividad de Nuestro Salvador.

Las lecturas de la Biblia de estos cuatro domingos nos hablan de un mundo en espera. Nos hablan de María que está embarazada y canta su alegría. El embarazo de María termina en el nacimiento de Cristo. Y así comienzan con: José, María y el niño Jesús, la Familia que será para siempre el símbolo de Navidad. Dios nace en una familia, viene a nacer entre nosotros.

Quisiera que nos fijáramos en el ejemplo de la familia de Nazaret para hacer de este tiempo algo que nos ayude a construir nuestras familias en la espera de Dios. Cuando uno espera, lo que llega se debe al esfuerzo humano. Por ejemplo, vamos de compras para tener lo necesario para adornar el árbol de Navidad y el nacimiento, preparamos la cena de Navidad, invitamos a familiares y amigos, damos regalos. Nos hemos esforzado por preparar todas las cosas y al final ha llegado Navidad, hemos cenado en familia, el árbol está bello con tantos adornos y luces, hemos dado los regalos a los familiares y amigos. Con esfuerzo preparamos este día de Navidad; llegamos todo nos salió bien.

Pero ahora debemos pensar si lo que hemos hecho estaba también adornado de ESPERANZA. La esperanza es algo que cuando llega lo que esperamos nos sobrepasa, que no lo hemos logrado por nuestro esfuerzo, sino que Dios está detrás de lo que ha llegado.

El pueblo de Israel vivió la espera con esfuerzo, pero también vivió la esperanza: aquello que Dios iba a hacer por su pueblo. La preparación de la Navidad, la espera de este día la hacemos con especial esfuerzo para que sea bello todo, pero además debemos prepararnos con la esperanza de que llega algo Nuevo cada Navidad: Es Dios que quiere estar presente en nuestra familia. Es Dios que quiere vivir entre nosotros. Es Dios que quiere estar en el corazón de los niños. Es Dios que quiere desterrar de nuestras vidas lo que nos impide ser de verdad los hijos de Dios.

Preparemos la Navidad aguardando con esperanza. Al final todo será mucho más bello pues en cada familia habrá felicidad y en cada familia Dios nacerá

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

Advent is the time we are given to welcome the Lord who comes to encounter us, and also to verify our longing for God, to look forward and prepare ourselves for Christ's return. He will return to us in the celebration of Christmas, when we will remember his historic coming in the humility of the human condition; but he enters our heart each time we are willing to receive him; and he will come again at the end of time to judge the living and the dead. Therefore, we must always be vigilant and await the Lord with the hope of encountering him.
Pope Francis

El Adviento es el tiempo que tenemos para dar la bienvenida al Señor que viene a encontrarnos y también para verificar nuestro anhelo por Dios, para mirar hacia adelante y prepararnos para el regreso de Cristo. El Volver a nosotros en la celebración de la Navidad, cuando recordemos su venida histórica a en la humildad de la condición humana; pero entra en nuestro corazón cada vez que estamos dispuestos a recibirlo; y vendrá de nuevo al final de los tiempos para "juzgar a los vivos y a los muertos". Por lo tanto, siempre debemos estar vigilantes y esperar al Señor con la esperanza de encontrarnos con Él.
Papa Francisco

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

November 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Thousands of now retired sisters, brothers, and religious order priests spent years working in Catholic schools, hospitals, and agencies—often for little pay. Their sacrifices leave their religious communities without adequate savings for retirement and oldercare. Rising Health Care costs and decreased income compounds funding shortages as more religious reach retirement age and leave compensated ministry. Income further declines while the care and struggle steadily increases.

The National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO), provides support through the annual appeal for the Retirement Fund for Religious by providing financial assistance to religious communities. Grants are distributed to religious institutes for retirement care and planning and educational assistance. Also, NRRO trains and coordinates a network of volunteers and experts to provide workshops for hands on support to religious communities to care for their retirement needs.

Parishes in the Diocese of Venice will conduct the annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious the weekend of December 8 and 9, 2018. Your support provides direct financial assistance towards medications, nursing care and much more. Thank you for your generosity towards these men and women who have given their lives to serve the Church and the Faithful.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family. Have a Blessed Advent Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Reflections of Pope Francis

The time of Advent that we begin again returns us to the horizon of hope, a hope that does not disappoint because it is founded on the Word of God. A hope that does not disappoint, simply because the Lord never disappoints! He is faithful!

God Is Calling You to a Deeper Relationship with Him

Join St. Jude’s for this Great Adventure study on the prophets, presented by Thomas Smith. Each week, you will come to know a prophet from Scripture and learn how his message sheds light on our faith and our lives. They afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted, calling us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom. St. Jude Catholic Church will host this presentation with Fr. Robert Tatman on The Prophets: Messengers of God’s Mercy beginning on Tuesday, December 4, 2018 at 10:00 AM and every following Tuesday until class completion. For more information or to register for the study visit the parish office.

COLUMBIA RESTAURANT COMMUNITY HARVEST

Once more the promotion of the Columbia Restaurants during the month of September has been a huge success.

In response to customers' votes for St. Jude Church, we have received gift certificates for the restaurant in the amount of $2,350. These certificates are designated for fundraising events, such as the 2019 Gala on February 15th. Raffle tickets include certificates as one of the prizes. Thank you to all who participated, ate well, and supported this activity.

RESTAURANTE EL COLUMBIA COMMUNITY HARVEST

Una vez más la promoción del Restaurantes Columbia durante el mes de Septiembre ha sido un gran éxito.

En respuesta a los votos de los clientes por la Iglesia de San Judas, hemos recibido certificados de regalo para el restaurante por un monto de $ 2,350. Estos certificados están diseñados para eventos de recaudación de fondos, como la Gala de 2019 del 15 de febrero. Los boletos de la rifa incluyen certificados como uno de los premios. Gracias a todos los que participaron, comieron bien y apoyaron esta actividad.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY DISTRIBUTION

Fr. Celestino helped volunteers distribute over 300 turkeys for Thanksgiving. Father spent his own birthday handing over turkey after turkey. He stressed how important it is for everyone to have a real Thanksgiving meal as we give thanks on this important holiday. He also thanked the many individual donors and in particular The Kathleen K. Catlin Fund of the Community Foundation of Sarasota County for its annual support. Thank you Father Celestino!

DISTRIBUCION DE PAVOS

El P. Celestino ayudó a voluntarios a distribuir más de 300 pavos para el Día de Acción de Gracias. Padre pasó su propio cumpleaños entregando pavo tras pavo. Hizo hincapié en lo importante que es para todos tener una verdadera cena de Acción de Gracias mientras damos gracias en este importante día festivo. También agradeció a los muchos donantes individuales y, en particular, al fondo Kathleen K. Catlin de la Fundación Comunitaria del Condado de Sarasota por su apoyo anual. ¡Gracias Padre Celestino!
