Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

January 6, 2019

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12
Psalm 72

Dear Families:

Today, the first Sunday of January, the Church celebrates the Epiphany of the Lord. Epiphany is a Greek word which means manifestation of the Lord. God reveals Himself to us. We commemorate the call, the trip and the Adoration of the Magi. By "magi" it was understood people dedicated to the study and movement of the stars.

God's saving plan works as a dialogue between God and man. God does not impose "command and control". In the Book of Revelation 3:20, Jesus says to the Church of Laodicea: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me."

The Magi are models for us how to respond to God's call.

There were many different responses to the birth of Jesus:

- There were many who did not move (other magi, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Scribes and Pharisees).
- Others (such as Herod), moved to impose a ridiculous fight against the Messiah announced by the Magi.
- Only these (the Magi, as the Shepherds did before) respond opportunely.

The response includes these five things:

- They set off at once: "We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage" (Mt 2:2). They did not leave it for tomorrow, as so many of us do.
- When they are not sure, they ask, "Where is the newborn King of the Jews?" (Mt 2:2).
- When they arrive at the child's cradle, although they see Him poor and helpless, they worship Him, "They prostrated themselves and did him homage" (Mt 2:11). For as much as God comes down to talk with man, we must never forget the infinite distance that separates us.
- "Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts" (Mt 2:11). This must be our response to God's generosity. Obviously, we are not paying Him with this, but it's the least we can do.
- Finally, they "departed for their country by another way" (Mt 2:12). When the call of God is heard, we cannot continue as we were. He is the Way: the only Way. "No one comes to the Father except through Him" (Jn 14:6).

May this be for all of you, a feast of Peace and Love of God.

Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor

6 de enero del 2019

Isaías 60:1-6; Efesios 3:2-3a, 5-6; Mateo 2:1-12
Salmo 72

Queridas familias:

Hoy, primer domingo de enero, celebra la Iglesia la Epifanía del Señor. Epifanía es una palabra griega que quiere decir: manifestación del Señor. Dios se nos da a conocer. Conmemoramos la llamada, el viaje y la adoración de los Magos. Por "magos" se entendía a personas dedicadas al estudio y movimiento de las estrellas.

El plan salvífico de Dios funciona como diálogo entre Dios y los hombres. Dios no se impone con orden y mando. En Apocalipsis 3:20 dice Jesús a la Iglesia de Laodicea: "Mira que estoy a la puerta y llamo; si alguno oye mi voz y me abre la puerta, entraré en su casa, y cenaré con él y él conmigo".

Los Magos son para nosotros modelos de cómo hay que responder a la llamada de Dios.

Al nacimiento de Jesús hubo muy diferentes respuestas:

- Hubo muchos que no se movieron (otros magos, los habitantes de Jerusalén, los escribas y fariseos).
- Otros (como Herodes) se movieron para emprender una lucha ridícula contra el Mesías anunciado por los Magos.
- Solo estos (los Magos, como antes los Pastores) responden oportunamente.

La respuesta comprende estas cinco cosas:

- Se ponen en camino enseguida: "Hemos visto su estrella y hemos venido a adorarle" (Mt 2:2). No lo dejan para mañana, como hacemos nosotros.
- Cuando no ven claro, preguntan: "¿Dónde ha nacido el Rey de los judíos?" (Mt. 2:2).
- Cuando llegan ante la cuna del niño, aunque lo ven pobre y desvalido, le adoran: "Prostrándose, le adoran" (Mt 2:11). Por mucho que Dios se abaje a dialogar con el hombre, no podemos olvidar nunca la infinita distancia que le separa de nosotros.
- Abriendo luego sus cofres, le ofrecieron dones" (Mt 2:11). Esta tiene que ser nuestra respuesta a la generosidad de Dios. Es evidente que con eso no le pagamos, pero es lo menos que podemos hacer.
- Por último, se volvieron a su país por otros caminos" (Mt 2:12). Cuando se oye la llamada de Dios no podemos seguir como estábamos. Él es el Camino: el Único Camino. "Nadie va al Padre, sino por Él" (Jn 14:6).

Que esta sea para todos ustedes una Fiesta de Paz y Amor de Dios.

Padre Celestino, Pastor

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

 OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The people of Latin America are faith filled, but the needs and challenges that the Church faces are great. Christian values remain important, but many families are wounded by hostility from the surrounding environment, gang violence, drug trafficking, human trafficking and a lack of education.

The Church continues to point the way to Christ as the source of hope and healing within the family and among Latin American people. Many family and catechetical ministry projects are needed in Latin American countries to offer a way to strengthen, affirm, and celebrate family and community life, offering a new and promising vision for relationships with one another and with God.

The annual Collection for the Church in Latin America helps to fund projects that form family pastoral ministers who are helping nourish families, focusing on ministry, and supporting communities with existing programs, especially for the younger members of families.

Parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America the weekend of January 19 and 20, 2019. Your support will truly make a difference in the lives of our sisters and brothers in Latin America. Thank you for your generosity!

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for your support of the Church in Latin America.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Reflections of Pope Francis

Jesus tells us that he himself is the door to eternal life (cf. Jn 10:9), and he asks us, through genuine conversion, to open the doors of our hearts to a more sincere love of God and neighbor.

Mercy is the path uniting God with man, for it opens the heart to the hope of an eternal love.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

Jesús nos dice que Él mismo es la puerta a la vida eterna (cf. Jn 10, 9), y Él nos pide, a través de la conversión genuina, que abramos las puertas de nuestros corazones a un amor más sincero hacia Dios y el prójimo."

"La misericordia es el camino que une a Dios con el hombre, ya que abre el corazón a la esperanza de un amor eterno."
