Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

May 27, 2018

Deu 4:32-34, 39-40; Rom 8:14-17; Mt 28:16-20
Psalm 33

Dear Families:

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. The Church never gives a distinct separation to the three divine persons. The feasts of Jesus (Christmas, Easter, Ascension) and Pentecost (Holy Spirit) do not focus exclusively on the person of the Son and the Holy Spirit, whose interventions are commemorated throughout human history, but jointly acknowledge the Most Holy Trinity in the different stages of salvation common to the three divine persons. This is because the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, although three distinct persons are one and the same God. The real distinction between the three divine persons is internal to the being of God, and not due to the outside action, which is common to all three. This is the mystery we celebrate today.

This is the teaching of today's feast, and this is the faith that, in today's liturgy, we are asked to profess: faith in the radical mystery of the inner life of God, to which all other revealed mysteries make reference. With the revelation of the Trinity through Jesus Christ, we know that God is both one and at the same time plural.

Mystery is something beyond our created intellectual capacity; only through Jesus we know that God's nature is in Trinity.

Our justification is attributed to the Three Persons (Rom 3:1-5). On behalf of the Trinity, the apostle Paul greeted the faithful of Corinth (2 Cor 13:13), and it was in the name of the Trinity that the Church always understood that the faithful are to be baptized (Mt. 28:19).

The Trinity is the supreme model for our Christian life that demands total communication with, and imitation of the three, with absolute convergence on the unity. Plurality is inherent in us. However, unity is not. That Christ asked this unity for us, is reflected in His prayer to God: "Éso that they may be one, as you, Father, are in Me and I in You Éso that they may be one, as we are one" (John 17:21 and 22).

This is how it should be and this is how the Church is: one body, many parts (1 Cor. 12:12; Rom. 12:4). Individuals are saved within the community.

This unity and plurality of Christians is signified and realized in the Eucharist.

(This topic will be discussed in the next bulletin).

May God bless you,

Fr. Celestino Pastor

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

27 de Mayo del 2018

Deu 4:32-34, 39-40; Rom 8:14-17; Mt 28:16-20
Salmo 33 [32]

Queridas familias:

Hoy celebramos la fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad. La Iglesia nunca da culto por separado a ninguna de las tres personas divinas. Las fiestas de Jesús (Navidad, Pascua, Ascensión) y la de Pentecosté (Espíritu Santo) no terminan en la persona del Hijo ni del Espíritu Santo, cuyas intervenciones en la historia humana conmemoran, sino que agradecen conjuntamente a la Santísima Trinidad las distintas etapas de la obra salvadora común a las tres personas divinas. Y ello porque el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo, aun siendo tres personas distintas, son un solo y único Dios. La distinción real entre las tres personas divinas es algo interno en el ser de Dios, y no se debe a su actuación hacia fuera que es común a las tres. Este es el misterio que hoy celebramos.

Esta es la enseñanza de la fiesta de hoy, y ésta la fe que la liturgia de este día nos pide profesar: fe en el misterio radical de la vida interna de Dios, al que hacen referencia todos los demás misterios revelados. Gracias a la revelación de la Trinidad por Cristo Jesús, sabemos que Dios es a la vez uno y plural.

Misterio es algo superior a nuestra capacidad intelectual creada; sólo por Jesús sabemos que así es Dios.

A las tres personas se atribuye nuestra justificación (Rom 3:1-5). En nombre de la Trinidad saludaba el apóstol Pablo a sus fieles de Corinto (2 Cor 13:13). Y en nombre de la Trinidad entendió siempre la Iglesia que deben ser bautizados los creyentes (Mt. 28:19).

La Trinidad es el supremo modelo para nuestra vida cristiana que nos exige comunicación total e imitación de los tres y convergencia absoluta en la unidad. La pluralidad en nosotros es connatural. No lo es en cambio, la unidad. Cristo pidió para los suyos esta unidad que refleja su oración a Dios: "Que todos sean uno como tú Padre en Mí y yo en Tí Éso que sean uno como nosotros somos uno" (Juan 17:21 y 22).

Así tiene que ser y así es la Iglesia: único cuerpo con pluralidad de miembros (1 Cor. 12:12; Rom. 12:40). Se salvan los individuos pero dentro de la comunidad.

Esta unidad y pluralidad de los cristianos es significada y realizada en la Eucaristía.

(De este tema hablaremos en el próximo boletín).

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino Párrero

Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Matthews 28:19

Tomorrow, Monday, May 28th, is a day of reflection and prayer for all those who gave their lives for the cause of freedom and peace. They are our dead, who we honor this "Memorial Day".

On Thursday, May 28th, we celebrate the 12th anniversary of our Parish. I will remember the anniversary of our Parish and will give thanks to God for His blessings over these years. I will pray for those who are no longer with us, and who pioneered this project of St. Jude and Blessed Carlos Manuel.

I pray for those who gave their time, their talents and their love for this Parish; May God reward them in heaven.

I will remember all those who in the various apostolic groups develop their talents at the service of our community. I will ask in a special way for children and young people who are the future of the Church.

Together, let us pray that we may continue to develop the dream of the other buildings and facilities necessary for the proper functioning of this Parish. Thank you for joining in my prayers. St. Jude has already begun its Twelfth year; May the Holy Spirit be inspiration, life, light and strength in our way, and may our Mother Mary care for us.

Mensaje de la página 3

Vayan y enseñen a todas las naciones, bautizándolas en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Mateo 28:19

Mañana lunes 28 es día de reflexión y de oración por todos aquellos que entregaron sus vidas por la causa de la libertad y la paz. Ellos son nuestros difuntos a los que honraremos en este Memorial Day (Día Memorial).

Mañana lunes 28, celebramos el 12vo Aniversario de nuestra Parroquia. Dar gracias a Dios por sus bendiciones a lo largo de estos años. Pedir por los que ya no están con nosotros, y que fueron pioneros de este proyecto de San Judas y Beato Carlos Manuel.

Pido por los que dieron su tiempo, sus talentos y su amor a esta Parroquia; Dios les premie en el cielo.

Recordar a todos aquellos que en los diferentes grupos apostólicos desarrollan sus talentos al servicio de nuestra comunidad. Por los niños y los jóvenes que son el futuro de la Iglesia, pedir de forma especial.

Unidos pidamos para que podamos continuar desarrollando el sueño de tener los demás edificios y facilidades necesarias para el buen funcionamiento de esta Parroquia. Gracias por unirse a mis oraciones. Ya ha comenzado San Judas su Duodécimo año; que el Espíritu Santo sea inspiración, vida, luz y fuerza en nuestro camino, y que nuestra Madre, Mar'ía, nos cuide.

Prayer for Safety During Hurricane Season

The 2018 "Hurricane Season" will be formally underway on June 1. The season will continue through November 30 and all are encouraged to pray for protection from the storms that often threaten Southwest Florida. The devastation brought by Hurricane Irma in 2017 reinforces the fact that we need to pray for God's protection and care.

When attending Mass, please be mindful the priest should be the last person to enter the Church and the first one to leave.

6 Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

Share the Journey Continues - The Diocese of Venice continues to promote Share the Journey, a worldwide two-year initiative of Our Holy Father, Pope Francis. In the upcoming issues of the Mustard Seed, the Diocese will continue to run a series designed to answer questions focusing more specifically on Refugee Resettlement. This will serve as an aide to build bridges of reconciliation, understanding and hospitality, in keeping with the spirit of Share the Journey. The topics covered include: "What Does the Gospel Say About Refugees?", "What is the Economic Impact?" and "Are Refugees a Burden?", etc.

Below is the fourth of the series

What is the Economic Impact?

1. While refugees here five years or less have a median household income of $22,000, that figure more than triples in the following decades, growing far faster than other foreign-born groups. By the time a refugee has been in the U.S. at least 25 years, their median household income reaches $67,000-a full $14,000 more than the median U.S. income. New Economy

2. Refugees find work in the U.S. far earlier than in other countries and start businesses at an even quicker pace than the American-born. Google co-founder Sergey Brin came to America as a refugee. The father of Steve Jobs, CEO of Apple, was a Syrian refugee. Sources: University of Notre Dame, MPI, Center for American Progress, Notable Names Database.
